Tracy, John P. Sexton, 2018 Working medievalists are often the only scholar of the Middle Ages in a department at a university or a hundred mile radius While working to build a body of focused scholarly work the lone medievalist is expected to be a generalist in the classroom and a contributing member of a campus community that rarely offers disciplinary community in return As a result overtasked and single medievalists often find it challenging to advocate for their work and field As other responsibilities and expectations crowd in we come to feel disconnected from the projects and subjects that sustain our intellectual passion An insidious isolation even from one another creeps in and soon even attending a conference of fellow medievalists can become a lonely experience Surrounded by scholars with greater institutional support lower teaching loads or more robust research agendas we may feel alienated from our work the work to which we've dedicated our careers The Lone Medievalist the collaborative community and the book is intended as an antidote to the problem of professional isolation It is offered in the spirit of common weal that marks the ideals if not always the realities of so many of the communities we study agricultural professional national notional and of course monastic The Ballad of the Lone Medievalist isn't only about scholarship or teaching or institutional life or the pursuit of new learning it's about all of them The essays in this volume address all aspects of the professional and intellectual life of medievalists Though many of us acknowledge and address the challenges in being Lone Medievalists these essays are not intended as voces clamantium they are offered to provide strategies camaraderie and an occasional bit of inspiration They are a call to action a sharing of hard won wisdom and a helping hand and above all a reminder that we are not alone      The Bookseller and the Stationery Trades' Journal, 1886 Official organ of the book trade of the United Kingdom      The Guinness Encyclopedia of Popular Music: Lincoln, Abe-Primettes Colin Larkin, 1995 Documents popular music from 1900 through the mid 1990s with alphabetical entries on individual performers bands musical productions styles and terms      Bookseller and the Stationery Trades' Journal, 1886      The Ballad Minstrelsy of Scotland, 1893      Catalogue Bernard Quaritch (Firm), 1908      The Ballad Minstrelsy of Scotland. Minstrelsy of Scotland ,1872      Poe's Literary Battles: the Critic in the Context of his Literary Milieu Sidney Phil Moss,2025-08-13 In Poe s Literary Battles Sidney Phil Moss offers a penetrating study of Edgar Allan Poe s career as a literary critic situating him firmly within the contentious world of 19th century American letters Moving beyond the familiar image of Poe as the master of macabre fiction Moss reveals the sharp minded combative critic who wielded his pen with surgical precision against the literary mediocrity of his time Moss examines the cultural and professional environment in which Poe operated a milieu defined by rivalries between literary magazines shifting aesthetic standards and the personal feuds that often shaped reputations Through close readings of Poe s critical essays reviews and public quarrels the book illuminates how Poe s criticism was both an expression of his uncompromising standards and a survival strategy in a volatile publishing world The study also addresses the tension between Poe s aesthetic theories and his own creative output showing how his criticism helped define his place in American literature Drawing on extensive primary sources Moss presents Poe not as an isolated genius but as an active participant in a vibrant if often fractious literary culture Poe s Literary Battles is both an academic contribution to Poe scholarship and a lively narrative about the passions politics and polemics that shaped 19th century literary life
