The Ballbreaker:

The Ballbreaker Jerome Washnis, 2001-09-26 I served with the 7th Infantry Division in the Pacific back in 1945 and 1946 and that I believe is what inspired me to write this story But this is not a war story not at all even though all the action takes place in wartime America in 1944 It is rather a salty tale about the trials and tribulations of a young man who was caught up in the wartime draft of that era I mention my military service only to lend credence to some of the events that take place in this story I took pains to express myself in simple everyday language throughout the book and used easy to understand words and phrases to make a point in various situations The book itself is made up of interrelated comic situations absorbing events and circumstances told in a ribald fashion and which I tout as sophisticated adult humor
