The Art of War sun tzu,2019-01-06 Sun Tzu was a Chinese author of The Art of War an immensely influential ancient Chinese book on military strategy He is also one of the earliest realists in international relations theory The name Sun Tzu Master Sun is an honorific title bestowed upon Sun Wu the author s name The character wu meaning military is the same as the character in wu shu or martial art Sun Wu also has a courtesy name Chang Qing

Introduction Sun Tzu Wu was a native of the Ch i State His Art of War brought him to the notice of Ho Lu King of Wu Ho Lu said to him I have carefully perused your 13 chapters May I submit your theory of managing soldiers to a slight test Sun Tzu replied You may Ho Lu asked May the test be applied to women The answer was again in the affirmative so arrangements were made to bring 180 ladies out of the Palace Sun Tzu divided them into two companies and placed one of the King s favourite concubines at the head of each He then bade them all take spears in their hands and addressed them thus I presume you know the difference between front and back right hand and left hand The girls replied Yes Sun Tzu went on When I say Eyes front you must look straight ahead When I say Left turn you must face towards your left hand When I say Right turn you must face towards your right hand When I say About turn you must face right round towards your back Again the girls assented The words of command having been thus explained he set up the halberds and battle axes in order to begin the drill Then to the sound of drums he gave the order Right turn But the girls only burst out laughing Sun Tzu said If words of command are not clear and distinct if orders are not thoroughly understood then the general is to blame So he started drilling them again and this time gave the order Left turn whereupon the girls once more burst into fits of laughter Sun Tzu If words of command are not clear and distinct if orders are not thoroughly understood the general is to blame But if his orders are clear and the soldiers nevertheless disobey then it is the fault of their officers So saying he ordered the leaders of the two companies to be beheaded Now the King of Wu was watching the scene from the top of a raised pavilion and when he saw that his favourite concubines were about to be executed he was greatly alarmed and hurriedly sent down the following message We are now quite satisfied as to our general s ability to handle troops If We are bereft of these two concubines our meat and drink will lose their savour It is our wish that they shall not be beheaded Sun Tzu replied Having once received His Majesty s commission to be the general of his forces there are certain commands of His Majesty which acting in that capacity I am unable to accept Accordingly he had the two leaders beheaded and straightway installed the pair next in order as leaders in their place When this had been done the drum was sounded for the drill once more and the girls went through all the evolutions turning to the right or to the left marching ahead or wheeling back kneeling or standing with perfect accuracy and precision not venturing to utter a sound Then Sun Tzu sent a messenger to the King saying Your soldiers Sire are now properly drilled and disciplined and ready for your majesty s inspection They can be put to any use that their sovereign may desire bid them go through fire and water and they will not disobey But the King replied Let our general cease drilling and return to camp As for us We have no wish to come down and inspect the troops Thereupon Sun Tzu said The King is only fond of words and cannot translate them into deeds
