The Assassination Of Herbert Chitepo Texts And Politics In Zimbabwe:

The Assassination of Herbert Chitepo Luise White, 2003 Luise White examines the controversial assassination of Herbert Chitepo in 1975 from the perspective of the several confessions many accusations of responsibility that have been made She assesses why this murder continues to incite conflict in Zimbabwean politics

Rethinking African Politics Miles Larmer, 2016-04-08 In 1964 Kenneth Kaunda and his United National Independence Party UNIP government established the nation of Zambia in the former British colony of Northern Rhodesia In parallel with many other newly independent countries in Africa this process of decolonisation created a wave of optimism regarding humanity's capacity to overcome oppression and poverty Yet as this study shows in Zambia as in many other countries the legacy of colonialism created obstacles that proved difficult to overcome Within a short space of time democratisation and development was replaced by economic stagnation political authoritarianism corruption and ethnic and political conflict To better understand this process Dr Larmer explores UNIP's political ideology and the strategies it employed to retain a grip on government He shows that despite the party's claim that it adhered to an authentically African model of consensual and communitarian decision making it was never a truly nationally representative body Whereas in long established Western societies unevenness in support was accepted as a legitimate basis for party political difference in Zambia this was regarded as a threat to the fragile bindings of the young nation state and as such had to be denied and repressed This led to the declaration of a one party state presented as the logical expression of UNIP supremacy but it was in fact a reflection of its weakening grip on power Through case studies of opposition political and social movements rooted in these differences the book demonstrates that UNIP's control of the new nation state was partial uneven and consistently prone to challenge Alongside this the study also re-examines Zambia's role in the regional liberation struggles providing valuable new evidence of the country's complex relations with Apartheid era South Africa and the relationship between internal and external opposition shaped by the context of regional liberation movements and the Cold War Drawing on extensive archival research and interviews Dr Larmer offers a ground breaking analysis of post colonial political history which helps explain the challenges facing contemporary African polities

Multidisciplinary Perspectives on Zimbabwe's Liberation Struggle Munyaradzi Nyakudya, Wesley Mwatwara, Joseph Mujere, 2022-11-15 This book provides a timely reconceptualization of Zimbabwe's anti colonial liberation struggle resisting simple binaries in favour of more nuanced critical analysis Most historiographies characterize Zimbabwe's liberation struggle as being defined by simple bifurcations along racial ethnic class and ideological perspectives This book argues that the nationalist struggle is far more complex than such simple configurations would suggest and that many actors have been overlooked in the analysis The book broadens our understanding by analysing the roles of a wide range of political figures organizations and members of the military as well as the media and the often overlooked part that women played Over the course of the book the contributors also reflect on the ways in which revolutionary figures have been repainted as sellouts in particular by the ZANU PF ruling party and what that means for the country's interpretation of their recent past. Highlighting in particular the expertise of leading scholars from within Zimbabwe across a range of disciplines, this book will be of interest to researchers of African history, politics and postcolonial studies.

The Urban Roots of Democracy and Political Violence in Zimbabwe Timothy Scarnecchia, 2008. The author further proposes that this recourse to political violence, top-down nationalism and the abandonment of urban democratic traditions are all hallmarks of a particular type of nationalism equally unsustainable in Zimbabwe then as it is now.

BOOK JACKET Society, State, and Identity in African History Bahru Zewde, 2008. The Fourth Congress of the Association of African historians was held in Addis Ababa in May 2007. These 21 papers are a key selection of the papers presented there with an introduction by the distinguished historian Bahru Zewde. The papers are divided into six parts: Pre-Colonial Identities, Colonialism and Identity, Conceptions of the Nation-State and Identity, Identity-Based Conflicts, Migration and Acculturation, and Memory, History and Identity. The authors are scholars from Benin, Botswana, Cameroon, the Democratic Republic of Congo, Ethiopia, Mali, Nigeria, Senegal, South Africa, and Zimbabwe. Bahru Zewde is Emeritus Professor of History at Addis Ababa University, Executive Director of the Forum for Social Studies, and Vice President of the Association of African Historians. The Hidden Dimensions of Operation Murambatsvina Maurice Taonezvi Vambe, 2008 Whiteness in Zimbabwe David McDermott Hughes, 2010-04-15 Victims of political persecution since 2000 Zimbabwe's whites have never overcome the problem of belonging In North America and Australia Europeans became the majority and normal partially through the genocide of native peoples Settlers to Zimbabwe however only comprised a tiny minority They monopolized the territory but struggled to assimilate culturally Rather than integrating with African societies many adopted a strategy of social escape In this arresting and powerful study David McDermott Hughes shows how they became emotionally and artistically invested in the non human environment surrounding them He traces how writers artists and farmers crafted a white identity focused on ecological conservation and how emerging from state terror some are now groping toward a whiteness of uncommon humanity and humility

States of Violence Edna G. Bay, Donald Lewis Donham, 2006 By focusing on the participation and consequences for ordinary people this collection offers a fresh perspective on the eruption of violence in sub-Saharan Africa None of the contributions takes the easy way out either by claiming any special propensity of Africans to violence or by calling attention to titillating aspects of the violence itself Rather they offer thick descriptions of particular violent episodes to develop their contexts and the larger causes that made them happen The case studies drawn from field research in Guinea Bissau Nigeria Rwanda Sierra Leone
