The Bad Samaritan Alobwed'Epie, Charles Alobwede D'Epie, 2009 The Bad Samaritan is set in a kleptomaniac and highly corrupt imaginary African country called Ewawa. Due to mismanagement financial institutions collapse. Salaries are slashed and there is unprecedented unemployment leading to country exodus. Professor Esole and his wife are not only aggrieved by the salary slashes but also by the dubious closure of the Post Office Savings Bank with their savings. Desperate for money they resort to borrowing from private sources at exorbitant interest rates. Esole toddles into politics with the aim of righting things. Will his naïve approach to politics make or mar?

Civility and Its Discontents Christine T. Sistare, 2004 Contributors from philosophy and political science discuss the observation that civility, civic virtue, tolerance, and socio-cultural unity have declined while exploring the nature of civil society, the conflict between individual liberty and the common good, and the role of law and government policy in weaving the threads of the social fabric. Secrets from the Past Elise Noble, 2023-12-31 Years have passed since Nico Belinsky last saw Kaylin La Rocca, but he can't forget the girl he once thought of as a sister. Or the fact that she's wanted for murder. When Emmy Black, a woman who lives up to her name by walking on the dark side, offers a favour, Nico tasks her with searching for his old friend. He's playing with fire in more ways than one: not only does he risk stirring up a hornet's nest, but the last time he saw Kaylin, his feelings toward her were anything but brotherly. Kaylin La Rocca fell for a man out of a romance novel, but it turned out to be more of a horror story. Now she's his prisoner, a pretty little princess trapped in a glittering tower. A possession. She dreams of rescue, but any potential prince will have to face not only the cops but the villain who has claimed her. Can Nico and Emmy rescue her from the devil's clutches and prove that happily ever afters do exist?

Secrets from the Past is a romantic suspense crossover between Blackwood Security and Baldwin's Shore.

Law in Civil Society Richard Dien Winfield, 1995 Law in Civil Society advances a new and comprehensive theory of how legal institutions should be reformed to uphold the property, family, and economic rights of individuals in civil society. In so doing, it offers a powerful challenge to the dominant legal theories and practices espoused by liberalism, positivism, natural law, and critical legal thought. Winfield argues against the prevailing assumptions of legal philosophers who dogmatically embrace formal or historical conceptions of law. True law, he contends, must be constructed within the context of the different spheres of rights and ultimately can only exist within a civil society committed to self-determination and community. Working from these fundamental premises he analyzes in detail a rich array of important legal issues fair access to legal representation the rationale for jury trials appropriate distinctions between civil and criminal legal procedures the controversies pitting common law versus codification and adversarial versus inquisitorial systems of trial and the relationship between civil society and the state Much inspired by Hegel s Philosophy of Right Winfield s study offers the most convincing critique yet of that renowned philosopher s work and in the process provides a more complete and coherent conception of law than Hegel himself articulated Provocative and highly instructive the book should attract scholars teachers and students in legal and political philosophy and anyone else with an abiding interest in the foundations of Western law     A Philosophical Study of the Criteria for Responsibility Ascriptions Henry Benedict Tam,1990 Exploring the interpersonal basis of the practice of responsibility ascriptions this study formulates a precise set of criteria for responsibility ascriptions It demonstrates how the proposed criteria help to solve all the key problems connected with responsibility in moral and legal philosophy     The Bad Samaritan William Campbell Gault,2012-09-18 Newly rich married and bored Brock investigates an upper class tragedy Private detective Brock Callahan onetime star of the Los Angeles Rams is racing toward a touchdown when the morgue s phone call wakes him up His only rich relative Uncle Homer has just flown through the windshield of his midlife crisis Ferrari and Brock will never have to work again The private detective hangs up his license marries his longtime girlfriend and decamps for the California hills where he finds life among the nouveau riche to be duller than he ever imagined However there is one old lady the quick witted Maude Marner who charms the old jock But the day after she drops hints that she might have some work for him she is found dead having choked to death on her car s exhaust in a gruesome apparent suicide As Brock digs into the dark corners of upper crust suburbia he finds that no matter how you dress it up murder is always d class The Bad Samaritan is the 8th book in the Brock Callahan Mysteries but you may enjoy reading the series in any order     Truth ,1893     Justice in the Shadow of Death Michael Davis,1996 With wide public support in 1994 Congress established more than sixty new capital crimes In Justice in the Shadow of Death Davis argues that if the United States is ever to join the majority of the world in abolishing capital punishment opponents of the death penalty must make a stronger philosophical case against it He systematically dissects the arguments in favor of capital punishment and demonstrates why they are philosophically superior to opposing arguments Justice in the Shadow of Death is an important book for philosophers political theorists policy analysts and criminal justice specialists     Roughing it after gold, by Rux Hyacinthe Daly Devereux,1891     Books and Bookmen Andrew Lang,1892     Roughing it After Gold Rux,1891     Bowker's Guide to Characters in Fiction 2007 ,2008-02     The Contemporary Review ,1883     George Ade Fred Charters Kelly,1947     The Law and Politics of Abortion Carl Schneider,Maris A.
