Die Backlash-Mission. Timothy Zahn, 1997-08 The Essential W. Carl Ketcherside B. D.

Lewis,2025-03-13 An overview of the life and controversial teachings of W Carl Ketcherside 1908 1989 as reflected in his journal Mission Messenger and the numerous books he published over the years Much of what Ketcherside wrote can be found in the writings of the fathers of the Stone Campbell restoration movement from which this book quotes extensively in support of his position It is significant to note that division among Christians in early nineteenth century America arose from differences in doctrinal deductions or interpretations as expressed in various creeds The Campbells proposed that such deductions referred to as opinions should never be used as tests of Christian fellowship In the twentieth century division among Churches of Christ was and continues to be caused by differences in doctrinal interpretations as found in the various journals and other publications of each group Ketcherside argued that such doctrines should never be used as tests of Christian fellowship He based his position on scriptural premises set forth in numerous books and essays Additionally he cited the fathers of the Stone Campbell Movement as evidence that Churches of Christ had abandoned the principles of restoration and reverted to the divisiveness of early nineteenth century creedalism The shift in how Churches of Christ view doctrinal differences began in 1889 with the proclamation and publication of the Sand Creek Illinois Declaration by Daniel Sommer which he titled An Address and Declaration reversing the title of Thomas Campbell s Declaration and Address of 1809 This is a pre publication copy of The Essential W Carl Ketcherside The Ketcherside Collection of supporting documents referenced in the book has not yet been set up by the site administrator However documents referred to in the book as part of that collection may be found on Archive org listed individually by title

Church/mission Tensions Today C. Peter Wagner,1972 Green Lake 1971 marked a milestone in the progress of church mission relations The statement and the issue are important for the church for missions and for the evangelical Christian world today as a whole Over 400 leaders of the Evangelical Foreign Missions Association and the Interdenominational Foreign Mission Association met at Green Lake Wisconsin for a week long conference on the issues between the church and missions as the Christian world faces the 1970s One of the results of the conference was a realization that little writing has been done on the subject by the Evangelicals This book will be key reading material for every pastor missionary theological student and missions minded laymen who is concerned with the missionary task of the church in this last third of the twentieth century It contains the most valuable up to date information available on the subject today The writers discuss vital aspects of church mission tension Is the Church Really Necessary The Foreign Missionary A Vanishing Breed Closing Gaps Between Missions and Home Churches Planting Younger Missions Mission and Church in Four Worlds and other chapters that grapple with the problems facing evangelical missions today
