The Bare Tissue Of Her Soul:

The Raw Scent of Vanilla Emilia Bresciani, 2012-07-01 Few books are written at such a pitch of emotion as this one or in a language that is so unabashedly sensual and romantic. Weekend Australian. A true story of hope and courage spanning four generations. The Raw Scent of Vanilla is born from the storytelling traditions of the lush and fertile Peruvian Amazon. It follows the highs and lows of the Bresciani Lujan family whose women turn to the wisdom of nature to solve their problems. They take counsel with the wise Pink Dolphin of the Amazon, ask the river for advice and follow the profound messages of their dreams. But when tragedy hits hard and a mystical Blue Cat announces death, their wisdom persuades them to seek other spiritual routes. Decades later in another land, Emilia Bresciani must face her own tragedies. She turns to the wisdom of her ancestors for guidance. After becoming a successful journalist, she was looking forward to starting a new family with her husband until her life was shattered by his murder in mysterious circumstances. In a horrifying downward spiral, she found herself not only a widow but also the only suspect in his murder. This compelling book is a blend of wit and sadness, courage and adversity, and the vanilla and cinnamon scents of Latin America. A sensual feast of vibrant colours, rich aromas, magic and passion, it is the story of a woman's spiritual journey to find her true self. Selections from The Girl's Own Paper, 1880-1907

Terri Doughty, 2004-05-18 The Girl's Own Paper founded in 1880 both shaped and reflected tensions between traditional domestic ideologies of the period and New Woman values in the context of the figure of the New Girl. These selections from the journal demonstrate the efforts of its publisher, the Religious Tract Society, to combat the negative moral influence of sensational popular literature while at the same time addressing the desires of its audience for exciting reading material and information about topics mothers could not or would not discuss. Selected fiction gives a rich sense of the conventions and the domestic ideology of the time; the nonfiction prose ranges from essays on conduct and household management to articles on new opportunities in education and work. The Fortunes of a Flemish Mystic [Antoinette Bourignon. A Paper Read Before the Liverpool Literary and Philosophical Society, March 4th, 1872]. Alexander GORDON (Principal of the Unitarian Home Missionary College, Manchester.), 1872 Our Paper, 1897 Paper Fish Tina De Rosa, 2003 Set in Chicago during the 1940s and 1950s, Paper Fish is populated by hardworking Italian American immigrants whose heroism lies in their quiet, sometimes tragic, humanity. At the center of the novel is young Carmolina, who is torn between the bonds of the past and the pull of the future, a need for home and a yearning for independence. Carmolina's own story is interwoven with the stories of her family, the memories and legends of her Grandmother Doria, the courtship tales of her father, a gentle policeman, and her mother, a lonely waitress, and the painful story of Doriana, her beautiful but silent sister.
