Saunders, Sprawl is the single most significant and urgent issue in American land use at the turn of the twenty first century Efforts to limit and reform sprawl through legislative Smart Growth initiatives have been enacted around the country while the neotraditionalist New Urbanism has been embraced by many architects and urban planners Yet most Americans persist in their desire to live farther and farther away from urban centers moving to exurbs made up almost entirely of single family residential houses and stand alone shopping areas Sprawl and Suburbia brings together some of the foremost thinkers in the field to present in depth diagnosis and critical analysis of the physical and social realities of exurban sprawl Along with an introduction by Robert Fishman these essays call for architects urban planners and landscape designers to work at mitigating the impact of sprawl on land and resources and improving the residential and commercial built environment as a whole In place of vast residential exurbs these writers offer visions of a fresh urbanism appealing and persuasive models of life at greater density with greater diversity and within genuine communities With sprawl losing the support of suburban citizens themselves as economic environmental and social costs are being paid Sprawl and Suburbia appears at a moment when design might achieve some critical influence over development if architects and planners accept the challenge Contributors Mike Davis Ellen Dunham Jones Peter Hall David Harvey Jerold S Kayden Matthew J Kiefer Alex Krieger Andrew Ross James S Russell Mitchell Schwarzer William S Saunders is editor of Harvard Design Magazine and assistant dean for external relations at the Harvard Design School He is the author of Modern Architecture Photographs by Ezra Stoller Robert Fishman is professor of architecture and urban planning at the Taubman College of Architecture University of Michigan He is author of Bourgeois Utopias The Rise and Fall of Suburbia and editor of The American Planning Tradition Culture and Policy Designing Suburban Futures June Williamson, 2013-05-07 Suburbs deserve a better more resilient future June Williamson shows that suburbs aren't destined to remain filled with strip malls and excess parking lots they can be reinvigorated through inventive design Drawing on award winning design ideas for revitalizing Long Island she offers valuable models not only for U S suburbs but also those emerging elsewhere with global urbanization Williamson argues that suburbia has historically been a site of great experimentation and is currently primed for exciting changes Today dead malls aging office parks and blighted apartment complexes are being retrofitted into walkable sustainable communities Williamson shows how to expand this trend highlighting promising design strategies and tactics She provides a broad vision of suburban reform based on the best schemes submitted in Long Island's highly successful Build a Better Burb competition Many of the design ideas and plans operate at a regional scale tackling systems such as transit aquifer protection and power generation While some seek to fundamentally transform development patterns others work with existing infrastructure to
