Teaching As Learning An Action Research Approach:

Teaching as Learning Jean McNiff, 2006-04-14 In this fascinating and very personal book Jean McNiff author of the successful Action Research Principles and Practice argues that educational knowledge is created by individual teachers as they attempt to express their own values in their professional lives Working with case studies of actual practice she looks again at the familiar action research paradigm of identifying a problem imagining implementing and evaluating a solution and modifying practice in the light of that evaluation She gives practical advice on how working in this way can aid the professional development of action researcher and practitioner alike She concludes that the best teaching is done by those who want to learn and who can show others how to be open to their own processes of self development Action Learning, Action Research David Kember, 2000-05-01 This volume sets out to provide experience based tools for those needing to assess and improve teaching and learning quality It presents a detailed framework explaining what action learning and research is with information on how to carry out an action learning project Integrating Teaching, Learning, and Action Research Ernest T. Stringer, Lois McFadyen Christensen, Shelia C. Baldwin, 2009-03-26 Integrating Teaching Learning and Action Research Enhancing Instruction in the K 12 Classroom demonstrates how action research can be used as an integral component of teaching and learning and how teacher researchers can engage students as participatory researchers to accomplish highly effective learning outcomes The text details student research processes chapter by chapter and demonstrates through examples and multiple lesson plans how these processes can be incorporated into classroom lessons and linked to state courses of study and performance standards This timely text provides the means to upgrade student performance and maximize the possibility of success for all Action Research in Education Sara Efrat Efron, Ruth Ravid, 2019-11-18 Acclaimed as a text and professional development tool this user friendly resource has now been revised and updated and offers expanded coverage of collaborative action research CAR and participatory action research PAR Preservice and inservice educators get crucial step by step guidance for conducting classroom and school based studies to improve their instructional practices Organized to mirror the full cycle of action research the book provides balanced coverage of qualitative quantitative and mixed methods approaches Vivid vignettes and examples illustrate research approaches for a range of teaching and learning situations school subjects and age groups PreK 12 Readers learn how research approaches are driven by the research question as well as how to develop data collection strategies design and or evaluate assessment tools interpret analyze report and implement study results and design a new cycle of research that builds on the previous one New to This Edition In depth descriptions of CAR and PAR which enable groups of teachers to work together to solve problems in a classroom or school plus examples of both throughout the book Expanded or new discussions with examples of such topics as how research approaches and methods are driven by the research question how to assess different types of reliability and validity the differences between analysis and interpretation and how to use
