Teaching Authority And Infallibility In The Church:

Teaching Authority & Infallibility in the Church Paul C. Empie, Thomas Austin Murphy, Joseph A. Burgess, 1980 Lutherans and Catholics in Dialogue Magisterium Francis A. Sullivan SJ, 2002-09-30 A striking series of events of the past two decades have tended to raise questions about the exercise of teaching authority in the Catholic Church The Second Vatican Council the Encyclical Humanae Vitae the controversy over Hans Kung's book on infallibility and the subsequent declaration of Rome that he could no longer teach as a Catholic theologian the colloquium to which Edward Schillebeeckx was summoned by the Vatican the pastoral letter of the American bishops on the question of nuclear warfare have all stimulated a lively discussion of the claims of the Catholic hierarchy to authoritative magisterium With all the abundance of literature on the subject a book was still needed that would offer an up to date systematic presentation of Catholic thinking about the nature and function of this magisterium This is what the present volume sets out to provide It takes as its point of departure the belief which a great many Christians besides Catholics share namely that the Church of Christ is maintained in the truth of the Gospel by the Holy Spirit It then examines the various ministries by which the Gospel has been handed on and interpreted for each generation of believers looking especially to the role of the bishops and among them of the Bishop of Rome in settling disputes about the faith Questions concerning papal infallibility the response called for by papal encyclicals the critical role of Catholic theologians vis a vis the magisterium are treated in the light of current theological literature with the non specialist reader in mind Teaching Authority and Infallibility in the Church ,1978 Teaching Authority and Infallibility in the Church ,1979 Magisterium Francis A. Sullivan, 2002-09-30 A striking series of events of the past two decades have tended to raise questions about the exercise of teaching authority in the Catholic Church The Second Vatican Council the Encyclical Humanae Vitae the controversy over Hans Kung's book on infallibility and the subsequent declaration of Rome that he could no longer teach as a Catholic theologian the colloquium to which Edward Schillebeeckx was summoned by the Vatican the pastoral letter of the American bishops on the question of nuclear warfare have all stimulated a lively discussion of the claims of the Catholic hierarchy to authoritative magisterium With all the abundance of literature on the subject a book was still needed that would offer an up to date systematic presentation of Catholic thinking about the nature and function of this magisterium This is what the present volume sets out to provide It takes as its point of departure the belief which a great many Christians besides Catholics share namely that the Church of Christ is maintained in the truth of the Gospel by the Holy Spirit It then examines the various ministries by which the Gospel has been handed on and interpreted for each generation of believers looking especially to the role of the bishops and among them of the Bishop of Rome in settling disputes about the faith Questions concerning papal infallibility the response called for by papal encyclicals the critical role of Catholic theologians vis a vis the magisterium are treated in the light of current theological literature with the non specialist reader in mind Teaching with Authority Richard R. Gaillardetz, 1997 This book faithfully represents the teaching of Roman Catholicism on the Church's doctrinal authority while pointing to areas where there remains a gap between an ecclesiological vision of the Church informed by Vatican II and the popular understanding and concrete exercise of that authority in the life of the Church today The Church of Christ E. Sylvester Berry, 2009-07-01 The present volume being the outgrowth of lectures delivered in the classroom was originally written in Latin with the intention of supplying a textbook suited to the needs of those beginning the study of theology in our seminaries It is hoped that the detailed explanations and the simplicity of language will render the work intelligible and useful to a large portion of the laity With the exception of the Sacraments there is perhaps no subject of more practical interest to clergy and laity alike than that of the Church yet there are few works in English treating the subject in full The author trusts that he has made some contribution in this matter by giving a connected and rather detailed account of the origin constitution and powers of the Church from the dogmatic as well as from the apologetic point of view From the Introduction Rights, Laws and Infallibility in Medieval Thought Brian Tierney, 2024-10-28 The papers collected in this volume fall into three main groups Those in the first group are concerned with the origin and early development of the idea of natural rights The author argues here that the idea first grew into existence in the writings of the 12th century canonists The articles in the second group discuss miscellaneous aspects of medieval law and political thought They include an overview of modern work on late medieval canon law The final group of articles is concerned with the history of papal infallibility with especial reference to the tradition of Franciscan ecclesiology and the contributions of John Peter Olivi and William of Ockham The True Religion and Its Dogmas Nicholas Russo, 1886
