

TEACHING CHRISTIANITY

A World Religions Approach

Teaching Christianity A World Religions Approach Chichester Project S:

Integrative Religious Education in Europe Wanda Alberts,2012-02-14 This book is a contribution to the development of the young discipline of the didactics of the Study of Religions Religionswissenschaft in international perspective Integrative religious education refers to education about different religions in classrooms with children of various religious and non religious backgrounds Cornerstones of recent debates about theory and methodology in the academic study of religions and in education are discussed in the first chapter They form the basis of the following analysis and evaluation of current approaches to integrative religious education in Europe with a special focus on England and Sweden Particular attention is paid to the different underlying concepts of religion education and ways of representing religious plurality in these approaches Building on a discussion of the current situation of teaching and learning about religions in schools in Europe in the context of wider cultural social and political debates the book concludes with the suggestion of a framework for integrative religious education in Europe from a perspective that combines insights from the study of religions and education

Reasons for Living Marisa Crawford,Graham Rossiter,2006-11-01 Reasons for Living begins by exploring the development and psychological function of meaning identity and spirituality in the lives of young people This exploration can contribute significantly to the professional background of those engaged in the education and care of youth in various contexts The book then focuses on what it means to educate young people in meaning identity and spirituality Implications are considered for three school contexts the spiritual and moral dimension to the general curriculum in public and independent schools religious education in religious schools and state based Religion Studies courses Reasons for Living makes a much needed contribution to the philosophy of education by discussing the links between education and young people's spiritual and moral development It also provides new insights and approaches to values education and religious education Areas of fundamental importance in Australian education have long been held back not only by the gap between theory and practice but also by the very complexities of young people's personal development in contemporary Western Culture Reasons for Living offers a constructive and practical way forward

International Handbook of the Religious,

Moral and Spiritual Dimensions in Education Marian de Souza,Gloria Durka,Kathleen Engebretson,Robert Jackson,Andrew McGrady,2007-06-04 Traditionally spirituality has resided and been contained within religious frameworks but while the links between the two areas are still acknowledged by many in the contemporary world spirituality is perceived by some as an aspect of human life that is distinct from religion Consequently many are searching for meaning within and without religious traditions today and seeking answers to ethical and moral questions that have been generated by the knowledge and technological explosion One outcome is the renewed interest in the religious spiritual and moral dimensions of education throughout the life cycle This International Handbook presents the research and professional practice of scholars who are daily engaged in the consideration of these dimensions in education The result is a collection of essays which reflects the discipline in all of its internationality as it is today Embedded within the chapters is also an agenda for the future where the religious moral and spiritual dimensions in education are proposed as an exciting and challenging way forward for educators at all levels in society As well it offers a vision for the emergence of a peaceful and just world

Debates in Religious Education L. Philip Barnes,2011-07-07 Debates in Religious Education is an accessible and comprehensive guide to the issues that are currently central to discussions in religious education it is written with the needs of both trainee and practising teachers in mind

Citizenship Through Secondary Religious Education Liam Gearon,2003-12-16 Citizenship education is now a statutory part of the secondary school National Curriculum and R E is one of the subjects through which it can be taught This book has been written for student teachers and teachers who are looking for guidance

Teaching Christianity Clive Erricker,1987 Revised and updated this invaluable teaching tool looks at Christianity as a world religion and examines the implications for all those involved in religious education

Issues in Religious Education Lynne Broadbent,Alan Brown,2002 Religious education in schools continues to be a subject of debate and is especially topical in our multicultural society This text is designed to give students and teachers a contextual and theoretical background to this subject
