Teaching English to Young Learners David

Nunan,Anaheim University Press,2010-08-30 Translanguaging in EFL Contexts Michael Rabbidge,2019-03-26 The purpose of this book is to promote the value of translanguaging in EFL teaching contexts To date translanguaging has been discussed mostly in regards to US and European contexts This book will examine the teaching beliefs and practices of teachers within a South Korean elementary school context to evaluate the practices of current teachers who use translanguaging strategies when teaching This examination utilizes sociological theories of pedagogic discourse to discuss the consequences of language exclusion policies on the peninsula Using these theories it presents an argument for why EFL contexts like South Korea need to reevaluate their current policies and understandings of language learning and teaching By embracing translanguaging as an approach the author argues they will transform their traditional notions of language learning and teaching in order to view teachers as bilinguals and learners as emerging bilinguals rather than use terms of deficiency that have traditionally been in place for such contexts This book s unique use of sociological theories of pedagogic discourse supports a need to promote the translanguaging ideology of language teaching and learning

Varaha Purana

B.K. Chaturvedi,2004 A Handbook to Teaching Communicative English Dr.N.Badhri Ph.D(Eng.),Ph.D(Edn.),2021-02-01

The present book viz A Handbook to Teaching Communicative English For Research students is a successful attempt to teach English to ESL students through communicative approach. Several practical tasks are suggested to practice speaking English in a normal class room by an English making learning live and interesting. The communicative approach to teaching of English is organized on the basis of certain communicative functions such as apologizing, describing, inviting, promising etc. that the ESL learners need to know. It explains the language in terms of the functions it performs. This approach does not ignore the role of grammar in the process of language learning but it insists that the grammatical rules are useless unless they are applied to real life situations. Communicative approach focuses on the significance of language functions because the learner needs knowledge of both meaning and functions. It lays emphasis on functional, communicative and social interactive activities. The basis of each lesson is a problem or a task and the conduct of the lessons consists of setting the task, demonstrating ways of tackling it and in the process giving some pupils a chance to attempt it, then getting all the pupils to attempt and finally giving each pupil a rough indication of the measure of his success. The function of the task is to bring about a self-reliant effort by the learners. Tasks consist of interpreting a schedule, giving a set of directions etc.
