Farris, 1993 Grade level 1-2-3-4-5-6-7 peist The Effective Teaching of Language Arts Donna E. Norton, 1993 Field tested and backed by sound research this popular methods book provides readers with a broad background in language arts including assessment and instruction in the major areas of speaking, listening, writing and reading. Thoroughly encompassing the back to basics movement and the trend toward literature based instruction it offers clearly developed methodologies and lessons and makes extensive use of children's actual language samples to illustrate ways literature can enhance the development of language arts skills. Written by an award winning author the book focuses on material that embraces the needs of all learners linguistically different children, multicultural children and children with learning disabilities and handicaps. Emphasizing the importance of literature based strategies and the identification of literature that can be applied to each of the language arts it offers For Your Plan Book a special section at the end of most chapters which provides concrete ideas, field tested lessons and unit plans teachers can take right into their classroom. Literature chapters are now moved to the forefront of the book enabling instructors to place a greater emphasis on literature related language arts. Strong methodologies in the composition chapters now encompass the writing process plus results of a five year composition study of the relationships between writing and literature.
