Teaching Of Christ:

The Teaching of Jesus George Jackson, 2019-12-02 In The Teaching of Jesus George Jackson explores the radical implications of Christ's ministry through a lens shaped by the sociopolitical context of the 1960s and 1970s. Jackson deftly intertwines scriptural analysis with a critical examination of justice, love, and community, positing that Jesus's teachings are not merely spiritual directives but also potent calls to social action. His literary style is both impassioned and analytical, employing a compelling rhetoric that resonates with the struggles of marginalized communities, effectively bridging theology with sociocultural discourse. George Jackson, a prominent figure in the Black Panther Party and a prolific writer, was profoundly influenced by his own experiences of systemic injustice, trauma, and incarceration. These experiences inform his perspective on Jesus's teachings as tools for empowerment and resistance in the face of oppression. Jackson's unique position as a revolutionary thinker and his intellectual engagement with Christianity offer a fresh viewpoint on biblical narratives, challenging readers to reconsider conventional interpretations. This book is essential for anyone interested in the intersections of faith, activism, and social justice. Jackson's incisive insights urge readers to re-evaluate the relevance of Jesus's message in contemporary society, making The Teaching of Jesus not just an academic work but also a clarion call for transformative action. In this enriched edition, we have carefully created added value for your reading experience. Hand-picked Memorable Quotes shine a spotlight on moments of literary brilliance. Interactive footnotes clarify unusual references, historical allusions, and archaic phrases for an effortless, more informed read. The Teaching of Christ G. Campbell

Morgan, 2004-08-23 My purpose in this series of meditations is to consider His teaching on some of the great themes of supreme interest to men, and I propose to do that in the simplest way possible. Let it be understood that we start on the assumption that the New Testament view of the Person of Christ is to be accepted as true. I am not proposing a study of the words of Jesus in order to lead to Christ; I rather desire to lead those who have already found Christ to a study of His words. In this our first meditation I propose to examine the claims which Christ made as to His own teaching. I take up the writings of other men, all of them valuable in greater or less degree, and it is always interesting to notice a man's estimate of the value of the things he says himself, and this I have observed that the greatest human teachers have always been reticent as to the ultimate authority of their teaching. They have always admitted that there is room for interpretation, for question, for further investigation. That note is entirely absent from the teaching of Christ. There is no apology. He never said, 'It is natural therefore to suppose it may probably be so,' or 'Consult the authorities.'
