Teaching Philosophy For Democracy Asian Perspectives:

Teaching Philosophy for Democracy In-suk Cha, 2000 Asian Perspectives on Education for Sustainable Development
Liz Jackson, 2020-05-21 This book critically considers what various Asian philosophies can contribute to a more substantive discourse on sustainability education and educational philosophy The contributors examine how east and west interact in educational philosophy and practice in Asian contexts As a collection they provide a broad view of Asian sustainability thinking that is not dominated by Confucianism Buddhism Islam and post colonialism but rather which regards these themes and other frameworks for sustainable education as dynamic aspects of Asian contexts both historically and today As such the book invites readers to consider the challenges and opportunities for theorising of sustainability in the philosophy of education while also critically engaging with the way in which Asia and east are typically understood Of interest to those researchers in Asian conceptions of sustainability this book highlights a series of potential insights in relation to the often foregrounded perspectives of Global North and western based frameworks The chapters were originally published in Educational Philosophy and Theory Bioethics: Asian Perspectives Ren-Zong Qiu, 2013-06-29 Bioethics Asian Perspectives A Quest for Moral Diversity is the first volume on bioethics all contributors of which are exclusively non western scholars unfolds a rich and colourful picture addresses thorny bioethical issues from comprehensive Asian perspectives and different from the western paradigm of bioethics covers many topics including the intellectual foundation of Asian bioethics bioethics and Asian culture life and death euthanasia and end of life care in Asia shows in its discussions moral diversity in Asia sheds light on the debate about universal ethics global ethics and moral diversity The book is intended for senior undergraduate and graduate students interested in bioethics as well as for bioethicists philosophers physicians scholars of Asian and culture studies geneticists sinologists medical anthropologists health administrators health officials for relations with Asia foundation officers for health programs in Asia western journalists in Asia and officers of international organizations for Asia Asian Perspectives on Animal Ethics Neil Dalal, Chloë Taylor, 2014-04-16 To date philosophical discussions of animal ethics and Critical Animal Studies have been dominated by Western perspectives and Western thinkers This book makes a novel contribution to animal ethics in showing the range and richness of ideas offered to these fields by diverse Asian traditions Asian Perspectives on Animal Ethics is the first of its kind to include the intersection of Asian and European traditions with respect to human and nonhuman relations Presenting a series of studies focusing on specific Asian traditions as well as studies that put those traditions in dialogue with Western thinkers this book looks at Asian philosophical doctrines concerning compassion and nonviolence as these apply to nonhuman animals as well as the moral rights and status of nonhuman animals in Asian traditions Using Asian perspectives to explore ontological ethical and political questions contributors analyze humanism and post humanism in Asian and comparative traditions and offer insight into the special ethical relations between humans and other particular species of animals This book will be of interest to students and scholars of Asian religion and philosophy as well as to those interested in animal ethics and Critical Animal Studies

Philosophy and Democracy in Asia Philip Cam, In-suk Cha, Mark Gustaaf Tamthai, Asia-Pacific Philosophy Education Network for Democracy, 1997 In this volume philosophers from throughout the Asia Pacific region discuss a wide range of topics related to the development of democratic values and ways of life The papers explore ideas values and practices related to democracy from the different perspectives of the great religious and philosophical traditions of Asia as well as considering both philosophical issues and the place of philosophy in a democratic society While the contributors represent different philosophical traditions they are connected through a common concern with humanity a belief in the value of philosophical inquiry and scholarship and by a commitment to the value of philosophy education in building and sustaining democracy

Competing Frameworks Anatoli Rapoport, 2018-10-26 This book examines the evolving challenges and opportunities in 21st century citizenship education due to globalization It contrasts traditional national citizenship education with emerging global citizenship education Through international case studies it explores educators efforts to promote social justice and global awareness

School Leadership, Citizenship Education and Politics in China Shuqin Xu, 2016-08-23 This book examines and theorizes the dynamics and complexities of leadership in citizenship education in junior secondary schools in Shanghai China Specifically it examines from a macro and micro political theoretical perspective the interactions between principals and school party secretaries SPSs and how they respond to the demands of macro and micro political actors This qualitative empirical research found four major school leadership citizenship education scenarios in which principals and SPSs addressed the interests of different macro and micro political actors Moreover principals and SPSs enjoyed a complicated working relationship at the micro political school level in which they collaborated to fulfill their responsibilities and respond to school macro and micro political actors while competing for power over leadership in citizenship education Principals and SPSs leadership in citizenship education was shaped by inter related factors including diverse influences in a multi leveled world the integration of politics and education the demands of macro and micro political actors and personal factors To interpret these findings this study proposes a theoretical framework for understanding leadership in citizenship education in China as a political exercise This theoretical framework is useful for understanding the complexity of school and citizenship education leadership the micro political relationship between Chinese principals and SPSs and their dynamic and complex interactions with macro and micro political actors

The Kyoto School and International Relations Kosuke Shimizu, 2022-03-10 The Kyoto School and International Relations explores the Kyoto School's challenge to transcend the Western domination over the rest of the world and the issues this raises for contemporary non Western and Global IR literature Was the support of Kyoto School thinkers inevitable due to the despotism of military government thus nothing to do with their philosophy or a logical extension of their philosophical engagement The book answers this question by investigating individual Kyoto School philosophers in detail The author argues that any attempts to transcend the West are destined to be drawn into power politics as far as they uncritically adopt and use the prevailing ontological concept of linear progressive time and dominant meta narrative of Westphalia Thus to fully understand this problem there is the need to be cautious of the power of language of Westphalia and the concept of time in IR Aimed at students and scholars of IR theory Japanese politics and East Asian IR in general this book provides some introductory explanations of these academic subjects developing a theory based on the concepts of time and language of Kyoto School philosophy Asian Perspective ,2007 Journal of international development Missions and Politics in Asia Robert Elliott Speer,1898 Proceedings and Addresses of the American Philosophical Association American Philosophical Association,1986 List of members in v 1 Asian Studies Newsletter ,1984 Democratic readings from the world's great teachers.
