Teaching Secondary English Readings And Applications:

Teaching Secondary English Daniel Sheridan, 2013-03-07 This new edition of Teaching Secondary English is thoroughly revised but its purpose has not changed. Like the popular first edition it balances content knowledge with methodology theory with practice and problem posing with suggested solutions. The tone and format are inviting while addressing student readers on a professional level. Rather than attempting to cover everything the text provides a framework and materials for teaching a secondary English methods course while allowing considerable choice for the instructor. The focus is on teaching literature writing and language the basics of the profession. Attention is given to the issues that arise as one seeks to explore what it means to teach English. The problems and tensions of becoming a teacher are discussed frankly in a manner that helps students figure out their own attitudes and solutions. Features Focuses on a few central concepts in the teaching of secondary English. Provides an anthology of 22 readable and challenging essays on key topics allowing students to hear a variety of voices and opinions. Includes an applications section for each reading that extends the discussion and asks students to explore problems and grapple with important issues related to the articles. Offers short writing assignments in questions that follow the readings and in brief writing tasks in the applications and a longer writing assignment at the end of each chapter. Addresses student readers directly without talking down to them. New in the Second Edition This edition is shorter, tighter and easier to use. The opening and concluding chapters more directly address the concerns of new teachers. The anthology is substantially updated of the 22 articles included 14 are new to this edition. Each essay is preceded by a brief introduction and followed by questions for further thought. There are fewer applications but these are more extensive and more fully integrated within the text. A writing assignment is provided at the end of each chapter. Interviews with college students before and after student teaching are included in Chapters 1 and 6. The bibliographies at the end of each chapter are fully updated.

bibliography from ERIC CRIER's data base which contains materials from published journal literature dissertations USOE sponsored research and International Reading Association conference proceedings. Since this bibliography is designed to serve the needs of the researcher, the student and the practitioner, it is appropriately divided into three categories: methodology, summaries and applications. The methodology section includes studies of the reading research community as well as of research techniques and designs. The latter items relate both to general approaches and to designs and techniques for specific reading research problems. The summary section includes periodic reviews of reading research. These include the Gray Annual Summary, summaries of research on particular topics such as research on visual problems in reading, summaries of doctoral research in reading and summaries of investigations in one aspect of reading such as secondary reading and college reading. The application section consists of items that interpret and apply research findings to particular problems of reading instruction. An author's guide ordering information through the ERIC Document Reproduction Service and University Microfilms and listings of ERIC CRIER and IRA publications are appended. Athenaeum, 1872
