EFA Global Monitoring Report - 2013-2014 - Teaching and Learning Achieving quality for all

UNESCO,2014-02-04 The 2013 2014 Education for All Global Monitoring Report shows that a lack of attention to education quality and a failure to reach the marginalized have contributed to a learning crisis that needs urgent attention Worldwide 250 million children many of them from disadvantaged backgrounds are not learning the basics Teaching and Learning Achieving Quality for All describes how policy makers can support and sustain a quality education system for all children regardless of background by providing the best teachers The Report also documents global progress in achieving Education for All goals and provides lessons for setting a new education agenda post 2015 In addition the Report identifies that insufficient financing is hindering advances in education

A Teacher's Commentary on the Gospel of St. Mark Richard

Glover,1884 How Global Capital is Remaking International Education Hyejin Kim,2019-08-14 This book offers a first look at transnational education corporations new firms that operate international schools The quiet rise of transnational education corporations or TECs has implications for education systems around the globe as corporate interests gain a greater stake in the way schools operate The story of their ascendance links government policies in one corner of the world with profound effects in others In the past decade TECs have burst onto the international schooling scene Private firms publicly listed firms and private equity groups have transformed international education into an industry valued at over USD 30 billion Nowhere has the impact been stronger and more sudden than in Asia The top three international education firms with a presence in Asia run more than 20 schools in East and Southeast Asia with another six in India Each educates tens of thousands of students around the globe and has an annual revenue of over USD 300 million TECs offer a window onto the creation of new markets and the complex positions of governments in regulating social affairs This book helps readers to understand who these firms are what they do and how they have grown

a new section devoted to visual literacy critical literacy and multimodality Teaching advice and ideas are supported by practical examples linked to video clips filmed in real schools reflective activities observational tasks and online resources Each section includes suggestions for great children s literature and offers assessment advice and support for planning for diversity and special educational needs Drawing on the very latest research and theory supported by practical examples and guidance this is an essential resource for pre service teachers as they develop subject knowledge and the skills and confidence to deliver effective and engaging classroom practice
