Organisation Development

Through Teambuilding Mike Woodcock, Dave Francis, 1981 Teambuilding has been one of the most enduring themes in organisation development over the past two decades A team may be simply defined as any group who must significantly relate with each other in order to accomplish shared objectives Teambuilding is the process of planned and deliberate encouragement of effective working practices whilst diminishing difficulties or blockages which interfere with the team s competence and resourcefulness

Teambuilding Strategy Mike Woodcock, Dave Francis, 1994 This book presents a structured approach to analysing the key issues related to teambuilding It includes a series of questionnaires and activities designed to guide the reader through the key strategic decision that must be taken by any organization contemplating a teambuilding programme The authors also examine the benefits and dangers of teambuilding as an organization development strategy

Effects of Implementing the Learning Together Method on EFL Wondwosen Tesfamichael, 2019-06-28 Doctoral Thesis Dissertation from the year 2016 in the subject Pedagogy School Pedagogics course TEFL language English abstract

The target of this research was to examine whether or not the effects of implementing the learning together method improved eleventh graders paragraph writing skills in terms of content vocabulary layout grammar and mechanics. The research also examined the extent to which the implementation of the learning together method brought about changes on social skills in relation to communication leadership group management and conflict resolution skills. The quasiexperimental research was employed and the sample population was taken from two sections of eleventh grade. The learning together method was implemented in the experimental group after the students had been made to have awareness about it whereas in the control group the students were taught their lessons through the same method in which the elements and theoretical perspectives of the method were not used. Data were collected through tests questionnaire structured nonparticipant observation checklist focus group interview and semi structured interview. Dependent t tests were employed to test whether or not there were significant intra group differences in paragraph writing and social skills at 0.05 risk levels whereas independent samples t tests were used to check if there were significant inter group differences in paragraph writing tests and social skills questionnaire at 0.05 alpha levels. The analyses of paragraph writing pre test and social skills pre questionnaire of the inter groups showed that both groups had similar backgrounds in writing paragraphs and practicing social skills at the initial stage of this research. Nevertheless after the treatments had been given to the experimental research participants the analyses of the data indicated that the experimental group outscored significantly p
