Techne Na 3 Arts Pra Historiques Paperback By:

Platonic Political Art John R. Wallach, 2010-11-01 Dancing Chineseness and Techno-Choreography Zhi Xu, 2025-12-01

This book delves into the embodiment of Chineseness in digital performance utilising the innovative methodology of techno choreography This research critically examines professionally trained dancing bodies in Chinese dance from the vantage point of cultural transexperience It offers profound discussions of Chineseness through an unprecedented lens advancing a suite of choreographic tools beneficial for both academic and practical inquiries The methodology of techno choreography employed draws from theories as well as applications of interactivity immersion virtual reality and motion capture systems It perceives intercultural dancing bodies and cultural artefacts such as chopsticks gaoqiao handkerchiefs fans and red silks as interfaces during the dance composition process enacted within computational system environments Insights are derived from full length dance works created by the author X Body 2018 Mourning for a dead moon 2019 Unexpected Bodies 2020 and Being River 2024 This volume grapples with pertinent cultural and artistic questions including how Chineseness contributes to the process of techno choreography how technology affects the embodiment of Chineseness and what Chineseness might be in the context of techno choreography This book will be indispensable for scholars and practitioners across disciplines such as dance theatre performance music and human computer interaction as well as for those enthralled by technology imbued compositions Selecting and Implementing Technologies in Libraries Tod Colegrove, 2022-09-14

New technology and services are fundamental to maintaining the relevance of libraries today but which technologies and or services make sense to implement and which to avoid Building from a framework drawn in the overlap of design thinking with best practices in emerging technology and library practice this book is a go to guide for the active library practitioner and LIS student alike From the 3D printers and laser cutters of today s library makerspace to collection development and library outreach this primer offers clear examples that illustrate the practical and collaborative approach that ensures alignment and increases the likelihood of success Written as a textbook for LIS students in the crossover areas of emerging technology design thinking and library management the book will also meet the needs of the active library practitioner in public academic and special libraries both those new to the field and seasoned professionals The practical treatment and examples provided will be of interest and immediate use Questions at the end of each chapter give readers an opportunity to think about the concepts presented The book is also designed to let the enduring values of librarianship and library practice shine through guiding the reader to navigate the future of library technology Live Coding Alan F. Blackwell, Emma Cocker, Geoff Cox, Alex McLean, Thor Magnusson, 2022-11-22 The first comprehensive introduction to the origins aspirations and evolution of live coding Performative improvised on the fly live coding is about how people interact with the world and each other via code In the last few decades live coding has emerged as a dynamic creative practice gaining attention across cultural and technical fields from music and the visual arts through to computer science Live Coding A User s Manual is the first comprehensive introduction to the practice and a broader cultural commentary on the potential for live coding to open up deeper questions about contemporary cultural production and computational culture This multi authored book by artists and musicians software designers and researchers provides a practice focused account of the origins aspirations and evolution of live coding including expositions from a wide range of live coding practitioners In a more conceptual register the authors consider liveness temporality and knowledge in relation to live coding alongside speculating on the practice s future forms
