Technical Foul Winning Season:

Technical Foul Rich Wallace, 2005-06-02 Jared knows he's the best basketball player in school. He's got the talent, the touch and the shots. With him at center, the Hudson City Hornets finally have a chance at making the playoffs. But Jared's also got a temper and when the ref throws him out of the game, he watches his team's chances start to slip away. With some help from his friends, he begins to realize that he's got to be a better teammate in order for the Hornets to be a better team.

Technical Foul Rich Wallace, 2004 Jared is a high scoring member of the Hudson City Middle School basketball team. Gets angry when the point guard accuses him of being responsible for their string of losses but finally realizes they can win only if he becomes a team player.

40 Seasons Rick Wood, 2011 Growing up in Kinston, Alabama, Rick Wood had two goals to play high school basketball for his role model Creigh Purnell and to become a high school coach and teacher himself. Though he was never able to make Coach Purnell's varsity, he enjoyed a stellar coaching career. Rick Wood retired with 662 wins at the time the most by any active coach in North Carolina. His players were known for their teamwork, hustle and sportsmanship. They were also known for being true student athletes, receiving two awards for having the best team GPAs in the entire state.

40 Seasons chronicles how one small town boy turned his dream into a lifetime of achievements. Through his eyes, we discover universal lessons about winning, losing, teaching and living.

Second String Center #10 Rich Wallace, 2008-11-13 Slimmed down and in great shape, Dunk is thrilled to make the school basketball team as a second string center. Jared, the starting center, is the best player on the team. But when Jared begins missing practice as well as the shots he used to make, Dunk is on the court more than he expected. He's playing better than ever but will that jeopardize his friendship with Jared?

From Julius to Jason Guy Kipp, 2003 From the time that the Nets sold Julius Erving to the Philadelphia 76ers upon entering the NBA in 1976 until the point when they acquired Jason Kidd from the Phoenix Suns in a trade in 2001, the Nets were plagued by a series of events that were by turns tragic, ill timed, unfortunate or just plain self-destructive. At least until 2002, when so many of the ghosts of a quarter century of misfortune and occasional mismanagement were virtually exorcized. These are the Nets. Their history is like that of no other sports organization in America. So lace up your old nylon Chuck Taylor Converse sneakers, inflate that old red, white and blue basketball, you've got sitting in the garage, and come join us for a long, strange trip back through Nets lore.
