The Bench Above Boothbay:

The Bench John Corns,2003-04-14 Rachel comes home to Boothbay Harbor to find the bench a site of childhood happiness and dreams denied to her even as she struggles with the reality of her mother's illness She lashes out at the tired old soldier who has moved into Holmes Cottage and has fenced the bench from the people who visit and live in the Harbor In no way can she foresee the paths of despair guilt hope and love that will mingle when her angry visits to the cottage become a need to help and to find help The soldier William takes her back to days of college and the Korean War of responsibility pride and loss And Rachel tells of her father whose life moves on while her mother slips into a world alone And from the West comes Stephen who knows neither the old soldier nor the young woman but in Boothbay Harbor will learn the secret of his past and discover the center of his future

Owainýs Own John H. Corns,2007-05-17 The town of Charleston lay across the river on the north bank of the Kanawha to the east of the bridge site and the Elk It was not much of a town at least not compared with Staunton or Winchester but Charleston was a much newer town He had never lived here he had no reason even to be here until the war Now he wished he had never seen the town wished he could turn ride away and forget it was there He pulled up the short collar of his faded gray uniform coat to cut off the wind that blew from the receding sun He looked down the river She and the children were in that direction For over the thousandth night in this war he worried if they were safe if they were afraid He shivered against the March cold and wished he could be with them Wished they could all hug into one great bed under a goose feathered comforter He wanted to lie with her feel her warmth forget the losses of the fighting and remove forever from his memory the action he was about to take tomorrow

Purdum,2018-04-03 A revelatory portrait of the creative partnership that transformed musical theater and provided the soundtrack to the American Century They stand at the apex of the great age of songwriting the creators of the classic Broadway musicals Oklahoma Carousel South Pacific The King and I and The Sound of Music whose songs have never lost their popularity or emotional power Even before they joined forces Richard Rodgers and Oscar Hammerstein II had written dozens of Broadway shows but together they pioneered a new art form the serious musical play Their songs and dance numbers served to advance the drama and reveal character a sharp break from the past and the template on which all future musicals would be built Though different in personality and often emotionally distant from each other Rodgers and Hammerstein presented an unbroken front to the world and forged much more than a songwriting team their partnership was also one of the most profitable and powerful entertainment businesses of their era They were cultural powerhouses whose work came to define postwar America on stage screen television and radio But they also had their failures and flops and more than once they feared they had lost their touch Todd S Purdum s portrait of these two men their creative process and their groundbreaking innovations will captivate lovers of musical theater lovers of the classic American songbook and young lovers wherever they are He shows that what Rodgers and Hammerstein wrought was truly something wonderful The Woodenboat ,2005 Atlantic Fisherman ,1987-12 PICK UP STICKS EMMA LATHEN,1970 Country Home ,2006 Recommended Bed and Breakfasts Eleanor Berman,1997-10 With a white glove and a discerning eye Eleanor Berman a longtime travel writer has visited hundreds of B B s to produce this highly selective guide This guide does not miss a detail from the stenciling on the walls to the choice of breakfast entrees Each listing includes names of hosts precise driving directions and complete information on number of room rates amenities and facilities and nearby attractions Each establishment included has been subjected to our author s rigorous standards No fees are accepted for inclusion Yachting ,1960 Commercial Fisheries Abstracts ,1961 Rudder Thomas Fleming Day,1923
