The Legendary Endowment Project Gary Griffin, 1995-08 Books in Print, 1991 Democracy's Defenders
Norman L. Eisen, 2020-04-07 A behind the scenes look at how the United States aided the Velvet Revolution Democracy's Defenders offers a behind the scenes account of the little known role played by the U S embassy in Prague in the collapse of communism in what was then Czechoslovakia Featuring fifty two newly declassified diplomatic cables the book shows how the staff of the embassy led by U S Ambassador Shirley Temple Black worked with dissident groups and negotiated with the communist government during a key period of the Velvet Revolution that freed Czechoslovakia from Soviet rule In the vivid reporting of these cables Black and other members of the U S diplomatic corps in Prague describe student demonstrations and their meetings with anti government activists The embassy also worked to forestall a violent crackdown by the communist regime during its final months in power Edited by Norman L Eisen who served as U S Ambassador to the Czech Republic from 2011 to 2014 Democracy's Defenders contributes fresh evidence to the literature on U S diplomatic history the cold war era and American promotion of democracy overseas In an introductory essay Eisen places the diplomatic cables in context and analyzes their main themes In an afterword Eisen Czech historian Dr Mikul Pe ta and Brookings researcher Kelsey Landau explain how the seeds of democracy that the United States helped plant have grown in the decades since the Velvet Revolution The authors trace a line from U S efforts to promote democracy and economic liberalization after the Velvet Revolution to the contemporary situations of what are now the separate nations of the Czech Republic and Slovakia

Another Throat Ryan Sharp, 2024-10-29 The early twenty first century has seen a sharp rise in Black US poets employing the mask of persona often including and interrogating archival materials as they do so While some have observed this rise and noted its connection to historical figures Ryan Sharp explores it more deeply as a project based historical and poetic practice Sharp examines its sustained use of historical persona and capacity for conjuring Black speakers as a countermeasure against the archival silencing and misrepresentation of Black voices and histories a tactic he theorizes as poetic fabulation through the poetry of Elizabeth Alexander Cornelius Eady Adrian Matejka Patricia Smith Natasha Trethewey and Frank X Walker This poetic practice is not only about looking back but about critically and creatively re imagining the past to expand the possibilities for Black presents and futures Through his argument Sharp demonstrates how the unique aesthetic and rhetorical license afforded to poetry along with the interiority of persona empowers such historically minded projects to be concurrently invested in the curation of Black narratives and identities
