Scenes of Parisian Life: The petty bourgeois Honoré de Balzac, 1896 Producing Culture and Capital Sylvia Yanagisako, 2020-06-16 Producing Culture and Capital is a major theoretical contribution to the anthropological literature on capitalism as well as a rich case study of kinship and gender relations in northern Italy Drawing on ethnographic and archival research on thirty eight firms in northern Italy's silk industry Sylvia Yanagisako illuminates the cultural processes through which sentiments desires and commitments motivate and shape capitalist family firms She shows how flexible specialization is produced through the cultural dynamics of capital accumulation management succession firm expansion and diversification and the reproduction and division of firms In doing so Yanagisako addresses two gaps in Marx's and Weber's theories of capitalism the absence of an adequate cultural theory of capitalist motivation and the absence of attention to kinship and gender By demonstrating that kinship and gender are crucial in structuring capitalist action this study reveals these two gaps to be different facets of the same omission A process oriented approach to class formation and class subjectivity enables the author to incorporate the material and ideological struggles within families into an analysis of class making and self making Yanagisako concludes that both provincial and global capitalist orientations and strategies operate in an industry that has always been integrated into regional and international relations of production and distribution Her approach to culture and capitalism as mutually constituted processes offers an alternative to both universal models of capitalism as a mode of production and essentialist models of distinctive cultures of capitalism Elbeuf during the Revolutionary Period Jeffry Kaplow, 2019-12-01 Originally published in 1964 Jeffry Kaplow investigates the effects of the French Revolution on life in Elbeuf a textile town in Normandy through a social historical lens A careful study of local demographic fiscal and tax records allows him to reconstruct the social structure of Elbeuf's population on the eve of the French Revolution and to make claims about its economy which was based on wool production Somewhat unusually there was no strong noble or clerical presence in Elbeuf which was dominated by wool manufacturers Despite the destabilizing effects of the Revolution which included an economic downturn and an inflamed sense of grievance among less wealthy local constituencies the bourgeoisie retained its grip on power in Elbeuf and its environs throughout this period With the support of extensive archival evidence Kaplow goes to great lengths to model the particular social and economic conditions that allowed this town to avoid succumbing to the tumult of the Revolution and to undergo in fact so little change compared with most municipalities of the country     The Lesser Bourgeoisie Оное де Бальзак,2021-03-16     Honoré de Balzac; a memoir, comp. and written by Katharine Prescott Wormeley Honoré de Balzac,1899     The XVIIIth Century P.
