The Liberal Cage

Halil Ibrahim Canbegi

The Liberal Cage:

Islam after Liberalism Faisal Devji, Zaheer Kazmi, 2017-12-01 Forged in the age of empire the relationship between Islam and liberalism has taken on a sense of urgency today when global conflicts are seen as pitting one against the other More than describing a civilizational fault line between the Muslim world and the West however this relationship also offers the potential for consensus and the possibility of moral and political engagement or compatibility The existence or extent of this correspondence tends to preoccupy academic as much as popular accounts of such a relationship This volume looks however to the way in which Muslim politics and society are defined beyond and indeed after it Reappraising the first wave of Islamic liberalism during the nineteenth century the book describes the long and intertwined histories of these categories across a large geographical expanse By drawing upon the contributions of scholars from a variety of disciplines including philosophy theology sociology politics and history it explores how liberalism has been criticised and refashioned by Muslim thinkers and movements to assume a reality beyond the abstractions that define its compatibility with Islam

The Liberal Cage Harry Clifton, 1988 Liberalism and its Encounters in India R. Krishnaswamy, Atreyee Majumder, 2023-09-21 This book explores the future of liberalism in India It moves away from traditional approaches and draws upon resources from other disciplines those subjects which some might think don't strictly fall under political science or theory like anthropology literature philosophy to critically engage with the condition of late capitalist modernity in India The essays in the volume trace liberalism's journey through modern Indian history to give us a new standpoint to understand current debates and also point to some internal contradictions of Indian liberalism The volume will be of importance to scholars and researchers of political science especially political theory and South Asian studies

Islamic Liberalism Halil Ibrahim Canbegi, 2025-07-10 In Islamic Liberalism A Theory of Impossibility based on the Lockean Tradition Halil Ibrahim Canbegi investigates the inherent inconsistencies of Islamic liberalism by examining the philosophical and theological foundations of both liberalism and Islam Canbegi draws on Lockean liberalism asserting that John Locke's emerging liberalism is deeply rooted in theological concepts such as covenant theology natural law and the distinctive nature of Christianity itself In contrast the author argues that Islam lacks the necessary theological and intellectual framework to develop a coherent version of liberalism often termed Islamic liberalism Canbegi maintains that this concept merely represents a superficial juxtaposition of Islam and liberalism rather than a genuine synthesis Ultimately the author concludes that Islamic liberalism is merely a heterogeneous amalgamation of Islamic and liberal ideas which do not combine into a unified whole This critical analysis challenges prevailing notions and invites readers to reconsider the complex relationship between these two influential systems of thought
