The Limits Of Autobiography Trauma And Testimony:

The Limits of Autobiography Leigh Gilmore, 2023-07-15 In The Limits of Autobiography Leigh Gilmore analyzes texts that depict trauma by combining elements of autobiography, fiction, biography, history, and theory in ways that challenge the constraints of autobiography. Astute and compelling readings of works by Michel Foucault, Louis Althusser, Dorothy Allison, Mikal Gilmore, Jamaica Kincaid, and Jeanette Winterson explore how each poses the questions: How have I lived and How will I live in relation to the social and psychic forms within which trauma emerges. First published in 2001, this new edition of one of the foundational texts in trauma studies includes a new preface by the author that assesses the gravitational pull between life writing and trauma in the twenty-first century, a tension that continues to produce innovative and artful means of confronting kinship violence and self representation.

Autobiographies of Others Lucia Boldrini, 2012-08-21 In this volume, Boldrini examines heterobiography, the first-person fictional account of a historic life. Boldrini shows that this mode is widely employed to reflect critically on the historical and philosophical understanding of the human, on individual identity and on the power relationships that define the subject. In such texts, the grammatical first person becomes the site of an encounter, a stage where the relationships between historical, fictional and authorial subjectivities are played out and explored in the double I of author and narrating historical character of fictional narrator and historical person. Boldrini considers the ethical implications of assuming another's first person voice and the fraught issue of authorial responsibility. Constructions of the body are examined in relation to the material evidence of the subject's existence. Texts studied include Malouf's An Imaginary Life, Carey's True History of the Kelly Gang, Ondaatje's The Collected Works of Billy the Kid, Adair's The Death of the Author, Banti's Artemisia, Vázquez Montalbán's Autobiografía del general Franco. Also discussed among others: Yourcenar's Memoirs of Hadrian, Tabucchi's The Last Three Days of Fernando Pessoa, Giménez Bartlett's Una habitación ajena, A Room of Someone Else's.

Literary Theory Julie Rivkin, Michael Ryan, 2017-02-06 The new edition of this bestselling literary theory anthology has been thoroughly updated to include influential texts from innovative new areas including disability studies, eco criticism, and ethics. Covers all the major schools and methods that make up the dynamic field of literary theory, from Formalism to Postcolonialism. Expanded to include work from Stuart Hall, Sara Ahmed, and Lauren Berlant. Pedagogically enhanced with detailed editorial introductions and a comprehensive glossary of terms.

The Elements of Autobiography and Life Narratives Catherine Hobbs, 2005 With its unique cultural and historical approach to writing an autobiography, The Elements of Autobiography and Life Narratives explores the genre and helps students through the process of writing their own life stories. It presents the autobiography as a means of self expression, personal and social growth, and development of insight, and shows how writing an autobiography occurs within social and cultural contexts and constraints. Provided by publisher.

Resonant Recoveries Jillian C. Rogers, 2021 In Resonant Recoveries, author Jillian C. Rogers shows what a profound effect World War I had on French musical life as musicians and their audiences turned to music as a consolatory practice to help them mourn their losses and heal their wounds Auto/biography Studies, 2002

Congresso, Silvia Albertazzi, Claudia Pelliconi, 2005 Piety and Dissent Eileen Razzari Elrod, 2008 For pious converts to Christianity in late eighteenth and early nineteenth century New England all reality was shaped by religious devotion and biblical text. It is therefore not surprising that earnest believers who found themselves marginalized by their race or sex relied on their faith to reconcile the tension between the spiritual experience of rebirth and the social ordeal of exclusion and injustice. In Piety and Dissent Eileen Razzari Elrod examines the religious autobiographies of six early Americans who represented various sorts of marginality. John Marrant, Olaudah Equiano and Jarena Lee all of African or African American heritage. Samson Occom Mohegan and William Apess Pequot and Abigail Abbott Bailey a white woman who was subjected to extreme domestic violence. Through close readings of these personal narratives Elrod uncovers the complex rhetorical strategies employed by pious outsiders to challenge the particular kinds of oppression each experienced. She identifies recurrent ideals and images drawn from Scripture and Protestant tradition parables of liberation, rage, justice and opposition to authority that allowed them to see resistance as a religious act and more than that imbued them with a sense of agency. What the life stories of these six individuals reveal according to Elrod is that conventional Christianity in early America was not the hegemonic force that church leaders at the time imagined and that many people since have believed it to be. Nor was there a clear distinction between personal piety and religious social and political resistance. To understand fully the role of religion in the early period of American letters we must rethink some of our most fundamental assumptions about the function of Christian faith in the context of individual lives CURRENT CONTENTS January 7, 2002 Volume 24 Number 1, 2002 Wordsworth and the Green Romantics Lisa Ottum, Seth T.
