Here Comes Harry with His Bucketful/Dino Ian Whybrow,2006-02 Here comes Harry with his bucketful of dinosaurs in this specially produced book just for World Book Day 2006 Anyone who loves books as much as Harry loves his dinosaurs will enjoy this one Join in the singsong story about Harry s adventures and learn all the dinosaurs names before tucking up in bed with them all at the end Here Come the Cavalry! Scott Strasser,2024-05-13 Step into the thrilling and topsy turvy history of professional soccer in Calgary with this captivating chronicle written by a former player dedicated fan and passionate journalist From the Boomers and Kickers of the 1980s to the present day Cavalry FC this book unveils the fascinating history of Calgary s professional soccer teams To set the stage it delves into the short lived tenures of Cavalry s predecessors explaining why they failed to endure These brief ventures are contrasted with the decisions Cavalry FC has made to not only stay afloat as a professional sports franchise but also to thrive and grow in the post pandemic era Bringing the narrative to life are in depth interviews with players coaches fans and team owners providing an insider s perspective on the triumphs and tribulations experienced by Calgary s professional soccer teams Meticulously researched with a blend of firsthand accounts and archival exploration this book stands as the definitive history of professional soccer s evolution in Calgary Find out why the beautiful game continues to endure in an otherwise hockey dominated city fuelled by the passion dedication and resilience that define Calgary s soccer community

Here Comes the Sun Steve Jones,2019-06-06 Illuminating Professor Brian Cox Every Steve Jones book is a masterclass in clear and captivating writing with tantalising detours into beguiling anecdotes Here Comes the Sun is dense with ideas and stories and like all his books it will change the way you see the world around you Robin Ince Our sun drives the weather forms the landscape feeds and fuels but sometimes destroys the creatures that live upon it controls their patterns of activity makes chemicals in the skin that cheer up those who bask in its rays and for the ancients was the seat of divine authority In Here Comes the Sun Steve Jones shows how life on Earth is ruled by our nearest star It is filled with unexpected connections between the need to stay cool and man s ability to stand upright between the power of memory and the onset of darkness between the flow of solar energy through the plants and animals and of wealth through society and between Joseph Goebbel s 1938 scheme to make Edinburgh the summer capital of a defeated Britain and the widening gap in the life expectancy of Scottish men compared to that of other European men brought on by that nation s cloudy climate Its author charts some of his own research in places hot and cold across the globe on the genetic and evolutionary effects of sunlight on snails fruit flies and people and shows how what was once no more an eccentric specialism has grown to become a subject of wide scientific social and political significance Stunningly evocative beautifully written and packed full of insight Here Comes the Sun is Steve Jones s most personal book to date

A Cultural-Historical Study of Children Learning Science Marilyn Fleer,Niklas

Pramling,2014-10-01 This book moves beyond the traditional constructivist and social constructivist view of learning and development in science It draws upon cultural historical theory in order to theorise early childhood science education in relation to our currently globalised education contexts The book argues that concept development in science for young children can be better theorised by using Vygotsky s concept of Imagination and creativity Vygotsky s theory of play and his work on higher mental functions particularly the concept of inter and intrapsychological functioning Key concepts are extracted from the theoretical section of the book and used as categories for analysis in presenting evidence and new ideas in the second section of the book In this second part of the book the authors examine how science knowledge has been constructed within particular countries around the globe where empirical research in early childhood science education has occurred The third part of the book examines the nature of the encounter between the teacher and the child during science learning and teaching In the final part of the book the authors look closely at the range of models and approaches to the teaching of early childhood science that have been made available to early childhood teachers to guide their planning and teaching They conclude the book with a theoretical discussion of the cultural historical foundation for early childhood science education followed by a model of teaching scientific concepts to young children in play based settings including homes and community contexts

Young Children Visit Museums Margaret Carr,Brenda Soutar,Leanne Clayton,Bronwen

Cowie,Jeanette Clarkin-Phillips,Shelley Butler,2022-09-06 Bringing different cultural perspectives on creativity with them teachers and children in two early childhood education sites in Aotearoa New Zealand were using museum visits as jumping off places to hone their creative capacity building As a contribution to Tim Ingold s discussion of anthropology and as education and also finding John Dewey s writing valuable specifically his framing of enduring attitudes the authors employ a navigation metaphor throughout the discussion They describe a coming together of four Cultural Anchors thinking from materials with four Coordinates creative capacity builders to describe ways in which the children were making creative sense of the museum exhibits while at the same time gathering information about them They take these travel metaphors from a star cluster in the southern hemisphere night sky Matariki which provided early sea going M ori with guidance as they navigated wide stretches of ocean in their sea going canoes to reach Aotearoa New Zealand A M ori immersion early childhood centre and school and a New Zealand kindergarten provided lively examples of children s and teachers responses to the treasured artefacts taonga in their local museums The book describes an ecosocial framing from little to big and illustrates the different cultural perspectives on creativity The Mana Tamariki kaiako teachers gifted us a title He taonga he rerenga arorangi Where there are treasured objects the spirit is nurtured and creativity will be inspired
