Teaching Functional Language:

Systemic Functional Language Description J.R. Martin, Y.J. Doran, Giacomo Figueredo, 2019-10-08 This volume showcases previously unpublished research on theoretical descriptive and methodological innovations for understanding language patterns grounded in a Systemic Functional Linguistic perspective. Featuring contributions from an international range of scholars the book demonstrates how advances in SFL have developed to reflect the breadth of variation in language and how descriptive methodologies for language have evolved in turn. Taken together the volume offers a comprehensive account of Systemic Functional Language description providing a foundation for practice and further research for students and scholars in descriptive linguistics SFL and theoretical linguistics

Bilingual Education Handbook, 1990 This handbook designed for classroom teachers administrators and parents of limited English proficient LEP children describes aspects of successful bilingual education program design. In general the handbook's focus is on school settings with large numbers of LEP students. Chapter 1 reviews research findings on effective program design and provides illustrations from California schools which use content based curriculum in the home language. The second chapter examines bilingual program content by subject area and describes how the requirements of the core curriculum interact with the special needs of the LEP student. Chapter 3 details one possible organizing scheme for large scale bilingual programs i.e. the transitional bilingual education program and focuses on key questions in classroom level planning. In the fourth chapter essential elements for effective program support are discussed including a staff of trained professionals who believe in and act on the assumption that every student can do well in school and appropriate instructional materials parental involvement and periodic program evaluation The final chapter reviews the key elements of program design and provides a checklist for planners MSE Writing and Reading Differently George Douglas
