Teaching And Learning English:

Teaching and Learning English in the Digital Age Inez De Florio-Hansen, 2018-04-23 TEFL in the 21st century First of all teaching and learning English in the digital age means using digital tools in TEFL classrooms This introduction exemplifies how to implement them in a meaningful way in combination with reliable methods for additional practice oriented teaching and learning suggestions see <https://www.deflorio.de/blog> A further important aspect of digitization is teaching and learning about media Teachers have to create and deploy opportunities that allow students to develop a critical stance toward media in general and digital media in particular This introduction to TEFL shows that the rapidly increasing influences of digitization lead to more internationalized and globalized science based approaches to teaching and learning English In this perspective digitization offers an opportunity to rethink and reshape didactic concepts

Teaching and Learning English Richard Andrews, 2001 Teachers researchers inspectors advisers and policy makers agree that teaching and research would benefit from the two activities being brought closer together This text brings out the implications for the quality of teaching and learning

Debating in Teaching and Learning English Ben Wilson, 2024-04-18 This book offers the first full length treatment of the topic of debating as a method of developing English Foreign Language EFL speaking inviting scholars and practitioners to reflect on the demands of the current age for moving forward educational practice While debating is a well known method of dialogic speaking and is widely practiced the extent to which it is integrated in adult TEFL has not been established and an understanding of its affordances for developing foreign language speaking is also limited This book fills the gap in the field of TESOL and applied linguistics on the affordances of debating as a form of dialogic speaking that can promote a holistic understanding and improvement of experience of education and indeed academic outcomes The two main themes that situate the work are those of dialogic speaking and affect at times referred to as humanistic positive psychology and social and emotional learning The book details the experiences of an adult EFL debate group in a private language school in the North of Italy It reports how the participants experience the pedagogy so as to offer insights into it as a form of teaching speaking in adult EFL as well as providing a practical framework with lesson plans and curriculum The affordances of debating emerge as being social cognitive educational and communicative and are discussed alongside the work of language teaching scholars Curran and Freire and more broadly within a Social Constructivist approach to education As such debating is discussed as being a holistic and dialogic form of pedagogy Particular attention to experience often affective is also found to be fundamental in planning and assessing educational outcomes for both teachers and learners
