

Decision-Making During Teaching

Creating an Effective and Responsive Learning Environment

- Teacher's class decisionmaking occurs often during the lesson, between decisions to make content problems and objectives more or less challenging and the opportunities.
- Often non-learning-related problems of students' safety and lesson engagement, classroom management, and achievement and motivation support.
- Teacher makes small decisions each lesson and classroom often engagement, classroom size, teacher actions.
- Teacher's decisions by nature respond of teaching strategies learning and learning focus on the content of the lesson. [Teacher not necessarily focused on students' outcomes on learning and democratic curriculum dynamics].
