The Lifeguard:

The False Chevalier, Or, The Lifeguard of Marie Antoinette William Douw Lighthall, 1898 Game Theory Andrew McEachern, 2022-05-31 This book is a formalization of collected notes from an introductory game theory course taught at Queen's University. The course introduced traditional game theory and its formal analysis but also moved to more modern approaches to game theory providing a broad introduction to the current state of the discipline. Classical games like the Prisoner's Dilemma and the Lady and the Tiger are joined by a procedure for transforming mathematical games into card games. Included is an introduction and brief investigation into mathematical games including combinatorial games such as Nim. The text examines techniques for creating tournaments of the sort used in sports and demonstrates how to obtain tournaments that are as fair as possible with regards to playing on courts. The tournaments are tested as in class learning events providing a novel curriculum item. Example tournaments are provided at the end of the book for instructors interested in running a tournament in their own classroom. The book is appropriate as a text or companion text for a one semester course introducing the theory of games or for students who wish to get a sense of the scope and techniques of the field.

The Russian Army of the Napoleonic Wars (2) Philip Haythornthwaite, 2012-11-20 During the Napoleonic era Russia possessed a vast force of cavalry forming a greater percentage than that of most European armies. This stemmed partly from their service against the Turks who had huge numbers of troops and partly from the fact that much Russian terrain was suitable for the manoeuvre of large bodies of cavalry. This companion volume to Men at Arms 185 examines the organisation, tactics and uniforms of the Russian cavalry during this dynamic and turbulent period covering Cuirassiers, Dragoons, Hussars, Uhlans, Mounted Jagers and the Lifeguard as well as the Opolchenie militia and Cossacks. Professional Lifeguard Textbook American Red Cross, 1994-10 In-Service Training for Aquatic Professionals Bruce Carney, 2000 This case study based manual provides a variety of scenarios that aquatic staff could face at any time. The manual also includes a CD ROM which provides a template for creating additional case studies and a database tracking system to conveniently document and printout reports containing personal certifications, expiration dates and training hours. This case study based manual gives you a variety of scenarios that your staff could face at any time. The user friendly approach will guide you through the many case study training sessions provided.
