The Linden:

The Linden Tree César Aira, 2018-04-24 A delightful fictional account of the small town C sar Aira grew up in not so long ago A delightful fictional memoir about C sar Aira s small hometown The narrator born the same year and now living in the same great city Buenos Aires as C sar Aira could be the author himself Beginning with his parents an enigmatic handsome black father who gathered linden flowers for his sleep inducing tea and an irrational crippled mother of European descent the narrator catalogs memories of his childhood his friends his peculiar first job his many gossiping neighbors and the landscape and architecture of the provinces The Linden Tree beautifully brings back to life that period in Argentina when the poor under the guiding hand of Eva Per n aspired to a newly created middle class As it moves from anecdote to anecdote this charming short novella touching funny and sometimes surreal invites the reader to visit the source of Aira s extraordinary imagination

The Linden Tree Hester Rowan, 2012-06-14 There was something extraordinarily familiar about the girl in the photograph Alison Maxwell thought though she couldn t for a moment give her a name And then she realized that the features were almost the same as her own You re not by any means identical Nicolas said but superficially there s a strong resemblance If you wore her clothes you could easily pass for her Alison knew with a sudden sick certainty what he was asking her to do He watched her steadily unsmiling For a short period say twenty four hours I want you to change places with Elizabeth It was a preposterous suggestion But Alison an out of work actress and deeply in debt knew that she couldn t refuse And Nicolas made it sounds so easy But then as Alison was soon to discover he had told her only part of the truth When she assumed the role of Elizabeth she knew loneliness and fear her life was in danger and Nicolas was responsible Too late she asked herself a number of questions just how well did she know Nicolas Allen Could she trust him to rescue her Could she trust him at all

Memories Under the Linden Tree G. Marie Meier, 2010-08 Verdant heart shaped leaves fragrant with white flower blossoms were drooping heavily from the Linden tree The fragrant aroma from it s flowers wafted lazily through the air making it seem as though I was drinking in creation at it s fullest The awesome Linden tree truly appeared vibrantly green brimming with life and activity as I listened to the humming whirring sounds of millions of buzzing bees Thus it revealed itself as truly being a tree of life
