The Law Of The Sea Current Problems:

ASEAN and the Law of the Sea Phiphat Tangsubkul, 1982 An important contribution to the dearth of literature of ASEAN and the law of the sea this book is the result of extensive research by Dr Tangsubkul an international law specialist The contents are divided into two broad areas The first section on the evolution of the geo juridical nature of ocean space appropriation by coastal states and ASEAN states covers Claims of ASEAN states relating to the law of the sea a historical survey Individual approaches and claims of ASEAN countries on the emerging trends in the law of the sea The special problems of passage through archipelagic waters and straits used for international navigation The second section on problems relating to jurisdiction and rights over living and non living resources of ASEAN countries covers Fishery development in individual ASEAN countries Problems of ASEAN vis vis fishing resources Status of development of petroleum and gas in individual ASEAN states Law and practice relating to the jurisdiction and rights over non living resources in ocean areas adjacent to ASEAN states Problems and potential conflict involving off shore exploration and exploitation of oil and gas P 4 of cover Continental Shelf Delimitation and Related Maritime Issues in the Persian Gulf Ahmad Razavi, 2021-09-27 The most significant characteristic of the Persian Gulf is the presence of huge oil fields under the sea bed of its shallow waters On the other hand the lack of understanding among the littoral states concerning the proper exploitation of these valuable resources has led to many conflicts and is still considered as having a very high potential for conflict This work clarifies the international legal rules applicable to the region with particular attention to the special characteristics of the Persian Gulf such as ethnic conflicts lack of defined land borders presence of numerous islands reefs and shoals and the presence of transboundary oil deposits It consists of a collection of materials relating to the law of the sea including both domestic and international rules conventions maritime agreements state practice the jurisprudence of the International Court of Justice and others The study analyses all of these important factors in order to find an equitable solution to the problems facing the international community Newsletter United States.
