

The Legend of Saint Nicholas

Saint Nicholas was born in the third century in a small village in Greece. His parents both became sick and died when he was a young boy.

Nicholas had been raised by his parents as a Christian so he decided to spend his life helping others. He sold all of his belongings and used everything he had to help the poor.

Later in his life, Nicholas became a church bishop. His reputation for helping others spread widely through the land.

He was put in prison, along with other religious leaders, by the Roman emperor. But, eventually they were released.

After leaving prison, Saint Nicholas continued serving others until his death in the year 343 AD.

Many legends are told about ways Nicholas helped the poor and children. His spirit of giving is still remembered today as we celebrate the Christmas season.
