The Lincoln Image:

The Lincoln Image Harold Holzer, G. S. Boritt, Mark E. Neely, 1984 A fascinating examination of the relationship between Lincoln's image the printmaker's craft and the political culture that helped shape them both The Lincoln Image documents how printmakers both chronicled and influenced the president's transformation into an American icon 106 photos An Interdisciplinary Introduction to Image Processing Steven L. Tanimoto, 2012-04-27 Basic principles of image processing and programming explained without college level mathematics This book explores image processing from several perspectives the creative the theoretical mainly mathematical and the programmatical It explains the basic principles of image processing drawing on key concepts and techniques from mathematics psychology of perception computer science and art and introduces computer programming as a way to get more control over image processing operations It does so without requiring college level mathematics or prior programming experience The content is supported by PixelMath a freely available software program that helps the reader understand images as both visual and mathematical objects The first part of the book covers such topics as digital image representation sampling brightness and contrast color models geometric transformations synthesizing images stereograms photomosaics and fractals The second part of the book introduces computer programming using an open source version of the easy to learn Python language It covers the basics of image analysis and pattern recognition including edge detection convolution thresholding contour representation and K nearest neighbor classification A chapter on computational photography explores such subjects as high dynamic range imaging autofocus and methods for automatically inpainting to fill gaps or remove unwanted objects in a scene Applications described include the design and implementation of an image based game The PixelMath software provides a transparent view of digital images by allowing the user to view the RGB values of pixels by zooming in on an image PixelMath provides three interfaces the pixel calculator the formula page an advanced extension of the calculator and the Python window

Lincoln Lessons Frank J. Williams, William D. Pederson, 2009-01-02 In Lincoln Lessons seventeen of today's most respected academics historians lawyers and politicians provide candid reflections on the importance of Abraham Lincoln in their intellectual lives Their essays gathered by editors Frank J. Williams and William D. Pederson shed new light on this political icon's remarkable ability to lead and inspire two hundred years after his birth Collected here are glimpses into Lincoln's unique ability to transform enemies into steadfast allies his deeply ingrained sense of morality and intuitive understanding of humanity his civil deification as the first assassinated American president and his controversial suspension of habeas corpus during the Civil War The contributors also discuss Lincoln's influence on today's emerging democracies his lasting impact on African American history and his often overlooked international legend his power to instigate change beyond the boundaries of his native nation While some contributors provide a scholarly look at Lincoln and some take a more personal approach all explore his formative influence in their lives What emerges is the true history of his legacy in the form of first person testaments from those whom he has touched deeply Lincoln Lessons brings together some of the best voices of our time in a unique combination of memoir and history This singular volume of original essays is a tribute to the enduring inspirational powers of an extraordinary man whose courage and leadership continue to change lives today Contributors Jean H Baker Mario M Cuomo Joan L Flinspach Sara Vaughn Gabbard Doris Kearns Goodwin Harold Holzer Harry V Jaffa John F Marszalek James M McPherson Edna Greene Medford Sandra Day O Connor Mackubin Thomas Owens William D Pederson Edward Steers Jr Craig L Symonds Thomas Reed Turner Frank J Williams Patterns, Thinking, and Cognition Howard Margolis,1987 What happens when we think How do people make judgments While different theories abound and are heatedly debated most are based on an algorithmic model of how the brain works Howard Margolis builds a fascinating case for a theory that thinking is based on recognizing patterns and that this process is intrinsically a logical Margolis gives a Darwinian account of how pattern recognition evolved to reach human cognitive abilities Illusions of judgment standard anomalies where people consistently misjudge or misperceive what is logically implied or really present are often used in cognitive science to explore the workings of the cognitive process The explanations given for these anomalous results have generally explained only the anomaly under study and nothing more Margolis provides a provocative and systematic analysis of these illusions which explains why such anomalies exist and recur Offering empirical applications of his theory Margolis turns to historical cases to show how an individual s cognitive repertoire the available cognitive patterns and their relation to cues changes or resists changes over time Here he focuses on the change in worldview occasioned by the Copernican discovery not only how an individual might come to see things in a radically new way but how it is possible for that new view to spread and become the dominant one A reanalysis of the trial of Galileo focuses on social cognition and its interactions with politics In challenging the prevailing paradigm for understanding how the human mind works Patterns Thinking and Cognition is certain to stimulate fruitful debate Film and the American Presidency Jeff Menne,Christian B. Long,2015-02-20 The contention of Film and the American Presidency is that over the twentieth century the cinema has been a silent partner in setting the parameters of what we might call the presidential imaginary This volume surveys the partnership in its longevity placing stress on especially iconic presidents such as Lincoln and FDR The contributions to this collection probe the rich interactions between these high institutions of culture and politics Hollywood and the presidency and argue that not only did Hollywood acting become an idiom for presidential style but that Hollywood early on understood its own identity through the presidency s peculiar mix of national epic and unified protagonist Additionally they contend that studios often made their films to sway political outcomes that the performance of presidential personae has been constrained by the kinds of bodies for so long white and male that have occupied the office such that presidential embodiment obscures the body politic and that Hollywood and the presidency may finally be nothing more than two privileged figures of media age power King's Lynn and the Fens John McNeill,2017-07-05 The fourteen papers collected in this volume explore the medieval art architecture and archaeology of King s Lynn and the Fens They arise out of the Association s 2005 conference and reflect its concern to engage with a broad range of monuments and themes rather than focusing on a single major building Within King s Lynn contributors consider the superb 14th century enamelled drinking vessel popularly known as King John s Cup the former Hanseatic Steelyard the Red Mount Chapel and the oak furnishings of the chapel of St Nicholas while the pine standard chest from St Margaret s church is assessed in terms of the importation and distribution of similar chest across England as a whole Outside King s Lynn there are articles on the historical manipulation of landscapes and buildings at Kirkstead the 13th century architecture and sculpture of Croyland Abbey the 14th century parish church of St Mary at Snettisham the tomb of Sir Humphrey de Littlebury at All Saints Holbeach the overlooked medieval wall paintings in the Prior s Chapel at Castle Acre and the late medieval stained glass at Wiggenhall St Mary Magdalen Finally there are three papers that look at particular aspects of the ways in which parish churches were financed embellished and used across the region in terms of late 12th and early 13th century patronage their 12th century deployment of architectural sculpture and the types and arrangements of choir stalls that appeared at a parochial level during the later Middle Ages Alphabetic Catalog of the Books, Manuscripts, Maps, Pictures and Curios of the Illinois State Historical Library Illinois State Historical Library,1900 The Lincoln Image Lincoln National Life Insurance Company,1984* The Art Journal ,1870 Vol for 1867 includes Illustrated catalogue of the Paris Universal Exhibition Moving Picture World and View Photographer ,1915 Hill's Album of Biography and Art Thomas Edie Hill,1888 A History of Gothic Art in England, with Illustr. by G.C.
