Scientific Inquiry Cycle: Review

Science helps communities solve problems by applying knowledge and inventing things. Often "solved" with a local science such as water testing or waste management using science to make or improve solutions can have a positive impact. Understanding the problem fully, including its causes and effects, is the first step in finding an effective solution.

Designing solutions requires considering various constraints, such as budget, time, and safety concerns. Community members have a part of a solution right from the beginning, and this input is used to weigh their needs and identify the resources, including materials for a model that they affect its cost and ease of use. Science influenced the effectiveness of the solution.

After identifying a solution, documenting how it works, what constraints affected it, and any compromises that have already been and possibly involve on the way. Communication, using simple words, and reflecting on the results of the solution are important steps. This process can help identify future needs, locally encourage responsible decision-making, and build community trust.

- a. Thinking of a solution
 - b. Finding the most expensive materials
 - c. Spreading safety concerns
 - d. Understanding the problem fully
2. What does documenting constraints in a solution help with?
- a. Finding the constraints of the solution
 - b. Evaluating the solution for safety and safety
 - c. Showing how to avoid constraints
 - d. Determining what the solution has no costs
3. Which is an example of a constraint?
- a. Finding a solution with no cost
 - b. Working without any tools
 - c. The time it takes to finish the project
 - d. Using unlimited materials
4. Why is it important to understand the problem fully?
- a. To avoid not being in a hurry
 - b. To make sure others understand
 - c. To finish the problem as quickly as possible
 - d. To avoid overlooking details

6B. Mark if the statement is True (T) or False (F).

1. A solution made after one failed attempt is always better than the first one.
