French Film Theory and Criticism Richard Abel,1993-09-12 These two volumes examine a significant but previously neglected moment in French cultural history the emergence of French film theory and criticism before the essays of Andr Bazin Richard Abel has devised an organizational scheme of six nearly symmetrical periods that serve to bite into the discursive flow of early French writing on the cinema Each of the periods is discussed in a separate and extensive historical introduction with convincing explications of the various concepts current at the time In each instance Abel goes on to provide a complementary anthology of selected texts in translation Amounting to a portable archive these anthologies make available a rich selection of nearly one hundred and fifty important texts most of them never before published in English    Voor recht en vrijheid Frits Rovers,1994    International Labor and Working Class History ,2001    The Ideological Hero in the Novels of Robert Brasillach, Roger Vailland & André Malraux Peter D. Tame,1998 The first book to provide a strong theoretical examination of the political ideologies of Brasillach Vailland and Malraux Dr Tame s study deals in particular with their contributions to the concept of the ideological hero From different positions of the political spectrum the three twentieth century French writers produced what has been called politically committed literature The principal concepts explored are of Fascist man in two novels by Brasillach the figure of the Bolshevik in three novels by Vailland and that of the Communist hero in three novels by Malraux One of Dr Tame s significant findings is that the various images of the ideological hero presented by the three novelists have more in common with one another than has been generally supposed
