Straight On Till Morning Beryl Markham:

Straight on Till Morning Mary S. Lovell,1987 Straight On Till Morning Mary S Lovell,2011-05-17 The New York Times bestseller Every page is filled with revelations gossip and fascinating details about Markham Diane Ackerman The New York Times Book Review Born in England and raised in Kenya Beryl Markham was a notorious beauty She trained race horses and had scandalous affairs but she is most remembered for being a pioneering aviatrix She became the first woman to cross the Atlantic Ocean and the first person to make it from London to New York nonstop In Mary S Lovell s definitive biography Beryl takes on new life vividly portrayed by a master biographer whose knowledge of her subject is unparalleled

Seductress Betsy Prioleau,2004-10-26 In this road map to restoring feminine sexual power Betsy Prioleau introduces and analyzes the stories and stratagems of history s greatest seductresses These are the women who ravished the world from such classic figures as Cleopatra and Mae West to such lesser known women as the infamous Violet Gordon Woodhouse who lived in a m nage with four men Smarts imagination courage and killer charm helped these love maestras claim the men of their choice and keep them fascinated for life Through an expos of their secrets Seductress provides an authoritative empowering guide to erotic sovereignty Memoir Ethics Mike W. Martin,2016-02-10 Memoir Ethics Good Lives and the Virtues is a philosophical study of moral themes in memoirs exploring how memoirists present and defend perspectives on good lives It pays particular attention to the interplay of the virtues including their interplay with additional non moral types of values in good lives More generally it explores the relevance of memoir to moral philosophy and in turn how moral philosophy enters into elucidating and critiquing memoirs Memoirs are understood as non fiction narratives written by oneself and significantly about oneself including full life autobiographies Mike W Martin explores perspectives on good lives as they are expressed in memoirs written by both philosophers and non philosophers Most of the chapters focus on one of the generic aspects of good lives moral goodness authenticity meaningfulness happiness health and self fulfillment The book clarifies how memoirists often employ life based arguments in defending value perspectives and it includes a discussion of whether philosophers memoirs are distinctive compared to memoirs by non philosophers and also compared to other forums for doing philosophy Martin highlights some parallels between features of good lives and features of memoirs for example both can be said to be meaningful authentic and having virtues such as wisdom and courage Demonstrating how memoirs are rich resources in exploring the good lives and exploring ways in which philosophical ethics provide tools for interpreting memoirs Memoir Ethics will be of interest to a broad audience of students scholars and general readers including anyone interested in ethics or the connections between literature and philosophy Black Poachers, White Hunters Edward I.

Steinhart,2006 In 1977 the Kenyan government banned all hunting whether by sportsmen or Kenyan Africans in response to the poaching crisis that was then spreading across the African continent This brought an end to the era of the Great White Hunters in this sportsman s paradise This book traces the history of hunting during Kenya s colonial era from the late nineteenth to the mid twentieth century Three main themes emerge first is the importance of hunting to Kenyan farmers and herders second is the attempt during European colonization of Kenya to recreate in Africa the practices and values of nineteenth century European aristocratic hunts which reinforced an image of African inferiority and subordination third is the role of the conservationists who claimed sovereignty over nature and wildlife completing the transformation of African hunters into criminal poachers North America Ohio U Press Kenya EAEP

Primitive Passions Marianna

Torgovnick,1998-10 In this provocative and illuminating book Marianna Torgovnick explores the psychology of our profound attraction to cultures we call primitive Whether located in Africa the South Pacific or the American Southwest the primitive has become synonymous in the Western imagination with a range of emotions and experiences thought to be lost in modern life reverence for the land and for nature strong communal bonds sexual plentitude and perhaps most intriguing and ecstatic sense of connection to the universe and the life force Torgovnick investigates the numerous ways we have turned toward the primitive out of spiritual hunger for such deeply human experiences a hunger that could once be satisfied within the West s own mystical traditions but that often no longer can be Brilliantly encompassing religion art psychology literature and other aspects of our culture Primitive Passions offers new insight into our ideas of spirituality and gender and ultimately into the hidden but vital parts of ourselves

They Came from Away David,2010-05-11 Though only a small island on the edge of a vast continent Cape Breton has impressed its distinctive identity on the Canadian scene This story is of some of the Yanks and Brits who like the authors came from away They include adventurers and disbanded soldiers entrepreneurs and hucksters worthies and criminals who have in their own diverse ways added to Cape Breton s colourful history
