Curtis,2017-08-15 A collection of 15 fantasy short stories similar to the Arabian Nights set in Chicago Excerpt The Manner in Which Mr Edward Middleton Encounters the Emir Achmed Ben Daoud It was a lowering and gloomy night in the early part of the present century Mr Edward Middleton a gallant youth who had but lately passed his twenty third year was faring northward along the southern part of that famous avenue of commerce Clark Street in the city of Chicago wending his way toward the emporium of Mr Marks Cohen Suddenly the rain which the cloudy heaven had been promising for many hours began to descend in great scattered drops that presaged a heavy shower Mr Middleton hastened his steps It was possible that if the dress suit he wore hired for the occasion of the wedding of his friend Mr Chauncey Stackelberg should become imbued with moisture in the shower that now seemed imminent Mr Cohen of whom he had hired the suit would not add to the modicum agreed upon a charge for pressing it But if his own suit for everyday wear which he was carrying under his arm with the purpose of putting it on at good Mr Cohen s establishment should become wet that would be a serious matter It was in fact his only suit and that will explain the anxiety with which he scanned the heavens Suddenly Pluvius unloosed all the fountains of the sky and with scarcely a thought whither he was going Mr Middleton darted into the first haven of refuge a little shop he happened to be just passing As the door closed behind him with the tinkle of a bell in some remote recess for the first time he realized that the place he had entered was utterly dark His ears straining to their uttermost to make compensation for the inability of his eyes to be of service to him in this juncture could no more than inform him that the place was utterly silent But to his nose came the powerful fragrance of strange foreign aromas such as he had never had experience of before which heavy and oppressive in their cloying perfume seemed the very breath of mystery All traffic had ceased without as the night was well advanced and the rain beat so heavily that the few whom business or pleasure had called abroad at that hour had sought shelter But though the rain now fell with a steady roar Mr Middleton perturbed by a nameless disquiet was about to rush forth into the tempest and seek other shelter when a door burst open and outlined against a glare of light stood a gigantic man who said in a deep low voice that seemed to pervade every corner of the room
