Strangely Familiar Narratives Of Architecture In The City:

Strangely Familiar Iain Borden, Joe Kerr, Alicia Pivaro, Jane Rendell, 2013-05-13 This series of provocative views presents the ways we use and inhabit places and the ways our lives are shaped by those places Strangely Familiar is a book about the unexpected about the vitality and the complexity of the everyday NATØ: Narrative Architecture in Postmodern London Claire Jamieson, 2017-01-20 Chronicling the last radical architectural group of the twentieth century NAT Narrative Architecture Today who emerged from the Architectural Association at the start of the 1980s this book explores the group's work which echoed a wider artistic and literary culture that drew on the specific political social and physical condition of 1980s London It traces NAT's identification with a particular stream of post punk postmodern expression a celebration of the abject an aesthetic of entropy and a do it yourself provisionality NAT has most often been documented in reference to Nigel Coates the instigator of NAT which has led to a one sided one dimensional record of NAT's place in architectural history This book sets out a more detailed contextual history of NAT told through photographs drawings and ephemera restoring a truer polyvocal narrative of the group's ethos and development Rethinking Architectural Historiography Dana Arnold, Elvan Altan Ergut, Belgin Turan Ozkaya, 2006-09-27 Rather than subscribing to a single position this collection informs the reader about the current state of the discipline looking at changes across the broad field of methodological theoretical and geographical plurality Divided into three sections Rethinking Architectural Historiography begins by renegotiating foundational and contemporary boundaries of architectural history in relation to other fields such as art history and archaeology It then goes on to critically engage with past and present histories disclosing assumptions biases and absences in architectural historiography It concludes by exploring the possibilities provided by new perspectives reframing the discipline in the light of new parameters and problematics This timely and illustrated title reflects upon the current changes in historiographical practice exploring potential openings that may contribute further transformation of the disciplines and theories on architectural historiography and addresses the current question of the disciplinary particularity of architectural history The Unknown City Iain Borden, 2002 A look beyond design process and buildings aimed at discovering new ways of looking at the urban experience Textual Practice Jean Howard, Alan Sinfield, Lindsay Smith, 2005-06-27 In this volume Textual Practice brings together some of its most pressing concerns by exploring the interaction of texts with language politics gender and history Textual Practice has a theoretical approach that crosses over into a range of other apparently disparate disciplines philosophy history law medicine science architecture gender and media studies Key Features Features the most exciting new voices and the most influential new scholars in the field Multidisciplinary Includes two articles on Ireland _ _ Occupying Architecture Jonathan Hill, 2005-07-28 Occupying Architecture proposes a complete re working of the relations between design and experience to transform the practices of the architect as well as ways of seeing and using architecture The Architects' Journal , 2001 Manual Iain Borden, Allford Hall Monaghan

Morris,2003-07-04 A hands on attitude to architecture trademark of the highly successful London based practice Allford Hall Monaghan Morris calls for more than the usual monograph According to Iain Borden Director of the Bartlett School of Architecture and author of this detailed guide to the practice of AHMM it calls for something more like a manual From Millenium Dome pavilion to medical centre and social housing for the Peabody Trust from office building refurbishment to primary school and the Walsall bus station the extra ordinary diversity of the AHMM s projects testifies to their creative energy optimism and eagerness to experiment AHMM four architects with numerous awards to their name and a rapidly growing international reputation for innovative pragmatic and cost effective solutions This publication presents their collected works fully detailed and with a wealth of illustrations Both monograph and manual because architecture is about more than appearances Inland Architect ,1994 Culture of Metropolis in Macau Arthur H. Chen,2001

The Fashion of Architecture Bradley Quinn,2003 Architecture is making its presence felt in cutting edge fashion The pliable metals membrane structures lightweight glasses and plastics used in building construction are creeping onto the catwalk As they do so their impact on recent textile developments has produced fabrics that enable clothing to act as individual climate controlled environments that can exchange information with embedded sensors resulting in wearable dwellings that act as both shelter and clothing At the same time architects are borrowing the techniques of pleating stapling cutting and draping from traditional tailoring to design buildings that are flexible interactive inflatable and even portable Although the relationship between architecture and fashion was recognized more than a century ago the connection between them has rarely been explored by historians designers or practicing architects The Fashion of Architecture is the first attempt to investigate the contemporary relationship between architecture and fashion in considerable depth by examining the ideas imagery techniques and materials used by visionaries such as Martin Margiela Issey Miyake Alexander McQueen Tadao Ando and Daniel Libeskind As mavericks ranging from Hussein Chalayan and Rei Kawakubo to Rem Koolhaas and Zaha Hadid describe architecture s role in the formation of fashion identities new readings of both areas emerge Probing and far reaching in its content The Fashion of Architecture is the most comprehensive study of this exciting area to date

Public+private ,2000 Modernism and Modernisation Helen Castle,1999-04-06 Modernization has become the soundbite of the 1990s What is the role of architecture within this quest for the modern The modernism of the 1990s is very different from its precursors earlier this century Where the pre war Modern Movement saw itself as an instrument of social change today s modernism is most visible in shops and restaurants where the International Style tended towards standardization and uniformity architects today aim for flexibility and individuality In examining these and other contemporary issues Modernism and Modernization in Architecture looks towards a new definition of modernism for our times Architecture + Film II Bob Fear,2000-05-25 At the representation of architecture in the cinema City Visions

Robert Bond, Jenny Bavidge, 2007 Collecting together 14 essays treating the panoramic oeuvre of novelist poet filmmaker and essayist Iain Sinclair this book aims to reflect and develop the current strong interest in his work Border/lines ,1996
