the book with the object of hastening its publication I obtained the assistance of my friend Mr J M D By the collection of fresh matter in amplification of that already arranged and the addition of several new features we have considerably increased the scope of the work and it is to be hoped added to its attractiveness To my friend s researches in the City of London and other Records is due the bringing to light of many curious facts so far as I am aware never before noticed He has also rendered me great assistance in those portions of the book in which the antiquities of the subject are specially treated The illustrations have been in most part taken from rare old works As any smoothing away of defects in such relics of the past would be deemed by many an offence against the antiquarian code of morality they have been reproduced in exact fac simile and will no doubt appeal to those interested in the art of the early engraver and amuse many with their quaintness As aptly terminating the chapter devoted to an account of the medicinal qualities of ale and beer I have ventured to enter upon a short consideration of the leading teetotal arguments In extending their denunciations to ale and beer drinkers the total abstainers are in my opinion working a very grievous injury on the labouring classes who for centuries have found the greatest benefit from the use of malt liquors Barley broth should be looked upon as the temperance drink of the people or in other words the drink of the temperate
