Strange Son:

Strange Son Portia Iversen,2007-11-06 Strange Son is the powerful tale of two mothers from opposite sides of the world who united by their fierce determination to help their severely autistic sons have challenged everything we thought we knew about autism Tito Mukhopadhyay an autistic boy from India who spends most of his time flapping his fingers in front of his eyes has an IQ of 185 He favors the writings of Wordsworth and Ibsen He loves philosophy reads People and worries about conflict in the Middle East He also writes beautiful poetry That Tito can communicate at all is due to his mother Soma who single handedly developed a revolutionary method of teaching him in their one room apartment in Bangalore a classroom that lacked even running water Iversen weaves the twin stories of Soma and Tito and how Soma's methods mystified experts together with her own story of how she and her family came to understand Dov The result is a book suffused with uplifting human drama universities and educational institutions have their own digital libraries that provide free access to PDF books and manuals.
