My Life So Far (An Autobiography) Sourav Kumar,2020-03-16

How my time spent so far how my life reacted with me and what I did in different situations I have narrated all the points in this book The god has frequently given me chances to my life I was laid in the courtyard as a dead body after three days of my birth due to a killing ailment thereafter I went on running amidst moving bullets and had a narrow escape While studying in convent school I was not a sincere student and spent most of time in mischievous activities that led to a fight and then the fight left an instance of a surgical strike Besides falling in love was another factor of lagging behind in study I spent the whole year following a girl did not dare to propose her so I still recall the final year of my school life as the first feeling of love I fell in love many times that is why I could not study properly and gave up my study to become a businessman How I struggled to overcome the hard time when the investment in the business went in vain and my family began to suffer with a worse economical condition Having a little knowledge I became a teacher and my profession played a crucial role in my writing career
