Sports Betting: Law and Policy Paul M. Anderson, Ian S. Blackshaw, Robert C.R. Siekmann, Janwillem Soek, 2011-10-28 Gambling is a significant global industry which is worth around 0.6% of world trade that is around US 384 billion and gambling on the outcome of sports events is a very popular pastime for millions of people around the world who combine a bet with watching and enjoying their favourite sports But like any other human activity sports betting is open to corruption and improper influence from unscrupulous sports persons bookmakers and others Sports betting in the last ten years or so has developed and changed quite fundamentally with the advent of modern technology not least the omnipresence of the Internet and the rise of on line sports betting This book covers the law and policy on sports betting in more than forty countries around the world whose economic and social development history and culture are quite different Several chapters deal with the United States of America This book also includes a review of sports betting under European Union EU Law The book appears in the ASSER International Sports Law Series under the editorship of Dr Robert Siekmann Dr Janwillem Soek and Marco van der Harst LL M Sport Clubs in Europe Christoph Breuer, Remco Hoekman, Siegfried Nagel, Harold van der Werff, 2016-12-08 This book presents an up to date portrait of the characteristics of sport clubs in various European countries and their role in society and the national sport system Furthermore it offers a cross national comparative perspective of sport clubs in twenty European countries Containing both empirical data and information on the political and historical backgrounds of sport clubs the book is organized in three parts First the authors provide an overview of the theoretical approach of the book and a description of the framework used for the country chapters Second the country chapters written by experts within the field provide a systematic overview of the available information on sport clubs in each country These chapters are structured to answer the following questions 1 What is the position of sport clubs within the national sport structure 2 Which role do they fulfil in policy and society 3 What are their basic characteristics and what factors influence the development of sport clubs The book is concluded with a systematic comparison of the participating countries with the purpose of forging a clear link between the functioning of policy systems observed problems and possible solutions and with a future research agenda on sport clubs In an era of increased collaboration between European states sport provides a natural vehicle through which to compare changes in culture economics and policy across nations Sport Clubs in Europe will appeal to scholars of nonprofit management sports management and sports sociology as well as administrators and policy makers in the international sports community
