Cornwall and Devon Everett Sharp,2022-09-22 The main theme of this book is an examination of part time voluntary military service culture as it contrasts the counties of Cornwall and Devon with the rest of the UK from 1846 to 1916 There is an explanation of pre war volunteers in the Militia and Yeomanry the growth of civilian controlled Rifle units plus reaction to the Boer War and the popularity of the then new Territorial Force It finally enquires about any possible enthusiasm for full time service from 1914 up to the introduction of conscription in 1916
