The Cambridge Guide to Women's Writing in English Lorna Sage, 1999-09-30 This Guide aims to consolidate and epitomise the re-reading of women's writing that has gone on in the last twenty-five years. This is an opportunity for stock-taking, a timely project when so much writing has been rediscovered, reclaimed and republished. There are entries on writers, on individual texts and on general terms, genres and movements, all printed in a single alphabetical sequence. The earliest written documents in medieval English, the visionary writings of Julian of Norwich and Margery Kempe are covered in an historical and geographical sweep that takes us up to the present day. The book reflects the spread of literacy, the history of colonisation and the development of post-colonial cultures using and changing the English language. The entries are written by contributors from all the countries covered. The result is a work of reference with a unique feeling for the vitality, wealth and diversity of women's writing.

Major Minorities, 2022-06-08 New West Indian Readers - 5 Clive Borely, 1984 NO description available The Other Side of Paradise Staceyann Chin, 2009-04-14 Staceyann Chin has appeared on television and radio discussing issues of race and sexuality but it is her extraordinary voice that launched her career as a performer, poet and activist. Here she shares her unforgettable story of triumph against all odds in this brave and fiercely candid memoir. No one knew Staceyann's mother was pregnant until a dangerously small baby was born on the floor of her grandmother's house in Lottery, Jamaica on Christmas Day. Staceyann's mother did not want her and her father was not present; no one except her grandmother thought Staceyann would survive. It was her grandmother who nurtured and protected and provided for Staceyann and her older brother in the early years. But when the three were separated, Staceyann was thrust alone into an unfamiliar and dysfunctional home in Paradise, Jamaica. There she faced far greater troubles than absent parents. So armed with a fierce determination and exceptional intelligence, she discovered a way to break out of this harshly unforgiving world. Staceyann Chin acclaimed and iconic performance artist now brings her extraordinary talents to the page in a brave, lyrical and fiercely candid memoir about growing up in Jamaica. She plumbs tender and unsettling memories as she writes about drifting from one home to the next, coming out as a lesbian and finding the man she believes to be her father and ultimately her voice. Hers is an unforgettable story told with grace, humor and courage.

"Return" in Post-colonial Writing Vera Mihailovich-Dickman, 1994 For writers and academics prominent in the field of the New Literatures in English today, the notion of return explodes into rich semantic difference to reveal the diversity of preoccupations underlying the use of the common tongue. From the Caribbean to Australia, Guyana to South Africa, India to Great Britain, literary, political and personal history collaborate in the poetic metamorphosis of an otherwise everyday experience. Now a state of being, now a reading rich with cross-cultural age, return draws from the collective memory, invokes revenants, digs up forgotten history, quests for roots. Just as it creates a dialogue with the past, textual or real, it negotiates turning points and perpetuates reversals. It reclaims territory, tradition and language in its yearning for home. Fraught with the tensions arising from awareness of the impossibility of return from the exhilarations of imaginary fictional return even from the glimmering hope of a possible return its contemplation can also lead to appreciation of the infinite return return newal and re creation that is the beauty of human experience Discussion ranges from revenant supernaturalism in West Indian literature and the exploration of return in Australian African and Indo Anglian fiction to Caribbean poetry South African praise poets and West African drama Writers treated include Ama Ata Aidoo Edward Kamau Brathwaite Jean D Costa Bessie Head Matsemela Manaka Salman Rushdie Derek Walcott and Patrick White The personal biographical dimension of physical return is encompassed via the examination of the life and works of such writers as Es kia Mphahlele and Wole Soyinka and through autobiographical reflections The essays stories and poetry in this collection challenge patterns of conditioned reading and call for a multilayered polylogue with reality
