Spring Shade Poems 1931 197:

Tongues of Fallen Angels Selden Rodman, Jorge Luis Borges, 1974 Selden Rodman's Tongues of Fallen Angels is a collection of conversations with twelve ranking authors leading men of letters in the Western Hemisphere with accompanying informal photographs From Spanish America Jorge Luis Borges Gabriel Garcia Marquez the late Pablo Neruda and Octavio Paz From Brazil Vinicius de Moraes and Joan Cabral de Melo Neto From Trinidad the poet playwright Derek Walcott From the United States Robert Frost Allen Ginsberg Ernest Hemingway Stanley Kunitz and Norman Mailer An impressive list and all the more so given Rodman's remarkable power to give human substance to figures whose everyday words have been generally ignored in favor of their writings and other public pronouncements When Rodman's Conversations With Artists appeared in 1957 it aroused a storm of controversy intentionally polemical it became a storm center in the battles then raging in the art world Rodman's journals also contained records of fiery bouts with novelists and poets of stature He was urged at the time to publish them but refrained preferring to wait for a book of a different more empathic intent in putting together Tongues of Fallen Angels Rodman the editor of such seminal anthologies as One Hundred British Poets and One Hundred American Poets forcefully asserts the essential social role of the creator The minor poet he declares is primarily concerned with form or innovation the major one uses these tools almost unconsciously to say something he feels he has to say and which the world will be better for hearing

Mrs. October was Here Coleman Dowell, 1974 Welcome to the quintessential American town Oh beautiful for specious skies For ambient waves of pain

Poems for the Game of Silence, 1960-1970 Jerome Rothenberg, 1975 I look for new forms and possibilities writes Jerome Rothenberg in Poems for the Game of Silence but also for ways of presenting in my own language the oldest possibilities of poetry going back to the primitive and archaic cultures that have been opening up to us over the last hundred years It is this combined sense of mystery and authenticity in words and new structures that approach archetypal chant that informs his poetry First published in 1971 this volume brings together a selection of Rothenberg's early groundbreaking work a wide range of experimental forms both written and oral set beside renderings of Native American Australian and other primitive songs as well as the ancestral poems exploring his own origins that look forward to his later poetry

Gorf Michael McClure, 1976 The murdered Mert and Gert are reborn in the search for their child the Shitfer who disintegrated when hurled through Time and Space is resurrected as his discrete pieces find and recognise their unity And presiding over all is Gorf himself the flying purple phallus the cosmic joke and life principle

The Poet in the World Denise Levertov, 1973 Using the medium of prose the contemporary poet expresses her thoughts on the poet's craft and other writers

In the Shadow of Progress Eric Cohen, 2008-07-15 We live in an age of unprecedented human mastery over birth and death body and mind nature and human nature In every realm of life science and technology have brought remarkable advances and improvements we are healthier wealthier and more comfortable than ever before But our gratitude for the benefits of progress increasingly mixes with concern about the meaning and consequences of our newfound powers If we can dream about a new age of genetic medicine we can also shudder at a new age of weapons of mass destruction As we welcome longer lives we wonder if we will still value human life as we should In the Shadow of Progress Being Human in the Age of Technology is a deep and lively reflection on the moral challenges of the technological age Eric Cohen a leading voice in America's bioethics debates offers a tour of the complex dilemmas at the intersection of science and morality moving seamlessly from contemporary subjects like stem cells and evolution to classic texts like the Hebrew Bible and Francis Bacon's New Atlantis Why are the wealthiest people in human history the least likely to want children What kind of civilization will we become if we seek cures for the sick by destroying human embryos What is lost when we relieve human sadness by altering the chemical balance of the brain or enhance human performance by altering the biological workings of the body In this age of scientific wonders have we forgotten what sets human beings apart from everything else in the natural world Can the fruits of modern science ever satisfy our deepest longings for love for virtue and for transcendence In the end Cohen argues there are no easy answers Our challenge is to live simultaneously with gratitude and fear pride and shame sobriety and hope in this new age of technology

Dickinson's Nerves, Frost's Woods William Logan, 2018-06-05 In Dickinson's Nerves Frost's Woods William Logan the noted and often controversial critic of contemporary poetry returns to some of the greatest poems in English literature He reveals what we may not have seen before and what his critical eye can do with what he loves In essays that pair different poems Ozymandias On First Looking Into Chapman's Homer In a Station of the Metro The Red Wheelbarrow After great pain a formal feeling comes and Stopping by Woods on a Snowy Evening among others Logan reconciles history and poetry to provide new ways of reading poets ranging from Shakespeare and Shelley to Lowell and Heaney In these striking essays Logan presents the poetry of the past through the lens of the past attempting to bring poems back to the world in which they were made Logan's criticism is informed by the material culture of that world whether postal deliveries in Regency London the Metro lighting in 1911 Paris or the wheelbarrows used in 1923 Deeper knowledge of the poet's daily existence lets us read old poems afresh providing a new way of understanding poems now encrusted with commentary Logan shows that criticism cannot just root blindly among the words of the poem but must live partly in a lost world in the shadow of the poet's life and the shadow of the age

Yvor Winters, a Bibliography Kenneth A. Lohf, Eugene Paul Sheehy, 1959 The Times Literary Supplement Index, 1902-1939, 1978 After the Ottomans Hans-Lukas Kieser, Khatchig Mouradian, Seyhan Bayraktar, 2023-07-13 This book deals with the lasting impact and the formative legacy of removal dispossession and the politics of genocide in the last decade of the Ottoman Empire For understanding contemporary Turkey and the neighboring region it is important to revisit the massive transformation of the late Ottoman world caused by persistent warfare between 1912 and 1922 This fourth volume of a series focusing on the Ottoman

Cataclysm looks at the century long consequences and persistent implications of the Armenian genocide It deals with the actions and words of the Armenians as they grappled with total destruction and tried to emerge from under it Eleven scholars of history anthropology literature and political science explore the Ottoman Armenians not only as the major victims of the First World War and the post war treaties but also as agents striving for survival writing history transmitting the memory and searching for justice The New York Times Book Review Index, 1896-1970: Title index ,1973

Stonewall Jackson and Religious Faith in Military Command Kenneth E. Hall,2005-05-03 The relationship between war and religion is nothing new For millennia humankind has waged war over religion and derived religion from war It is not surprising then that military leadership and religious conviction frequently coincide This study documents the long tradition of the religious warrior in Western history and literature with a special focus on Civil War general Thomas J Stonewall Jackson It also provides a general survey of the religious antecedents of Jackson and other more modern American military heroes The book begins with an introduction to the Confederate general largely from the perspective of those who lived with and served under him whose testimonies attest to his courage initiative innate tactical talent deep religious faith and eccentric personal habits The author analyzes the extent to which Jackson s national zeal has elevated him to the status of a religious martyr remembered today within an epic frame of sainthood and heroism Concise comparisons are drawn between Jackson and his Old World predecessors including Ulrich Zwingli John Knox and Oliver Cromwell Similar associations are made between Jackson and such Civil War contemporaries as William Dorsey Pender and Oliver Otis Howard A chapter addressing the representation of Stonewall in modern Civil War literature and film particularly in the novel and subsequent motion picture Gods and Generals provides an insightful juxtaposition of Jackson s status among the gods of the Civil War and his own reverence for the God of his Presbyterian faith The Times Literary Supplement Index ,1981 Books in Series, 1876-1949: Series ,1982 Bulletin of Bibliography & Magazine Notes ,1974 MLA International Bibliography of Books and Articles on the Modern Languages and Literatures ,2008
