Synthesis Responses To Literature:

Social Responses to Synthesized Speech: Theory and Application Kwan Min Lee, 2002      Researching Response to Literature and the Teaching of Literature Charles Raymond Cooper, 1985 This volume explores the theories and methodologies that help us to learn more about readers It presents a comprehensive review of the major research theories on response and the current techniques and methodologies for carrying out research Organized into three parts theories of response ways to study response and ways to study classroom instruction in literature it will be of interest to a variety of audiences including teachers of literature teacher training supervision curriculum and program evaluation psychometrics linguistics discourse theory computer science cognitive psychology and developmental psychology      Response to Student Writing Sarah Warshauer Freedman, Cynthia Greenleaf, Melanie Sperling, 1987 Noting that while writing teachers acknowledge that responding to their students writing is central to their teaching they still express frustration about how to make their response effective This book describes a two part study conducted to discover how the nation s most successful writing teachers respond to their students work The first chapter provides background information the rationale behind the study and an elaboration of the research questions The second chapter presents details of the experimental design including procedures for selecting the 560 successful teachers and their 715 students who participated in the first part of the survey This chapter also discusses ethnography observing response practices in the two ninth grade writing classes that participated in the second part of the study The third chapter describes the response practices of the teachers and their range and helpfulness while the fourth chapter analyzes values about writing uncovered in the survey the underpinnings and structuring of response The fifth chapter provides a summary of the research including characteristics of the successful teachers and their response practices while the sixth chapter contemplates what can be learned from the study The book concludes with 83 references and the following appendixes 1 the National Writing Project surveys 2 assignment sequences 3 note taking conventions and procedures for in class data collection 4 criteria for determining what was to be recorded on camera 5 supplementary tables 6 questions for character analysis and 7 student writing samples SKC      Student and Faculty Response to Writing to Learn at the College Level Tracy Anne Webb, 1990      Writing and Reading Differently George Douglas Atkins, Michael L. Johnson, 1985      The Critical Response to Ralph Ellison Robert Butler, 2000-04-30 Ralph Ellison s literary career began in 1937 with the publication of his review of Waters Edward Turpin s These Low Grounds Over the next 15 years he published 10 short stories and 37 essays on literary cultural and political topics But when Invisible Man was published in 1952 Ellison received immediate acclaim from a wide variety of critics scholars and novelists While his novel emerged as a major work of African American literature it also engaged the European literary tradition and influenced an entire generation of post World War II writers Ellison is now one of the most studied African American writers and the posthumous publication of his second novel Juneteenth in 1999 has drawn even more attention to his contribution

Through previously published reviews and essays and original material this book charts the response to Ellison's writings. While the bulk of the volume focuses on Invisible Man the book also includes sections devoted to Ellison's short fiction and nonfiction as well as posthumous estimates of his work. A chronology highlights the most important events in his life and career while an introductory essay overviews the broad trends in Ellison scholarship. The volume concludes with a selected bibliography of primary and secondary works.

A Sourcebook for Responding to Student Writing Richard Straub, 1999 A Sourcebook for Responding to Student Writing is a resource for writing teachers. It provides a range of teacher comments on a sampling of college student papers and an anthology of key statements on theory and practice of responding to student writing. Specifically the book presents twenty-five sets of responses made on a sampling of five student papers including expressive, explanatory, evaluative, and argumentative writing comments by a variety of teachers both well recognized composition scholars who have contributed to the research on teacher response and college English teachers whose primary area of study is outside composition. Two additional essays without accompanying teacher comments for further practice. A detailed bibliography on teacher response, a collection of noted articles on reading, evaluating, and responding to student writing. Free of analysis and apparatus the book may be used by teachers in their own ways according to their own assumptions, predilections, and goals to develop better ways of responding to student writing.
