Hammack,2017-05-27 Excerpt from The Family Physician and Guide to Health A System of Domestic Medicine Including a Treatise on Midwifery and the Diseases Peculiar to Women I have no apology to offer I have done the very best I could in preparing the matter for this work I have diligently consulted the ablest latest and best authorities in medical literature coming from both Europe and America and have tried hard to present the accepted facts of the history symptoms and treatment of diseases in plain simple and common place language so that every school boy or girl of intelligence can understand and comprehend them I have given the symptoms plainly and laid down the treatment not only on general principles but specially stating exactly what to give how much of it to give at a time and how often to give it By this means I have placed a great amount of valuable information within easy reach of the common people information too upon which may depend their health happiness or lives or that of those dependent upon them I neither deprecate nor invite criticism believing that the critic has neither a very wide nor profitable field for his fault finding skill If my unassuming book finds favor with the intelligent public I will be content to let critics fume and fret and enemies sneer and curl the lip with the scorn they try to feel A few physicians from selfish motives may try to discourage the masses from patronizing the work but I assure myself that it will receive the hearty approval of a large majority of those who have kept themselves posted in the standard medical literature of the day The intelligent physician wants an intelligent and well informed patient with such an one his labor is easy and pleasant It is only those who do not know quite as much as they really should who try to keep the common people in ignorance in regard to the symptoms and treatment of disease They fear the light of knowledge they know in it their own feeble light would shine but idly About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works      *Catalogue of the library of the Pharmaceutical society of Great Britain.
