Tabloid News:

Tabloid Tales Colin Sparks, John Tulloch, 2000-03-22 Coverage of the Clinton Lewinsky saga followed in a long trail of media exposures of the more personal details of the lives of public figures. Many commentators have seen stories like this and TV shows like Jerry Springer's as evidence of a decline in the standards of the mass media. This increasing interest in private lives and the falling off of coverage of serious news is often described as tabloidization. The essays in this book are the first serious scholarly studies of what is going on and what its implications are. Reality, it turns out, is much more complex than some of the laments suggest. As the contributors show, this is not just a U.S. problem but is repeated in country after country and it is not certain that the media anywhere are getting more tabloid. What is more, there is no consensus about whether tabloidization is just dumbing down or whether it is a necessary tactic for the mass media to engage with new audiences who do not have the news habit. Tabloid Tales will be of interest to students and scholars in journalism, mass communication, political science and cultural and media studies.

Editor & Publisher, 1971

The fourth estate The Wide World Magazine, 1927 Tabloid Television John Langer, 2006-10-19 Fires, floods, accidents, celebrity lifestyles, heroic acts of humble people, cute acts by family pets and the weather. Television's non-news about non-events takes up an increasingly large part of contemporary broadcast journalism but is regularly dismissed by television pundits as having no place on our screens. To its critics, this other news distracts our attention with trivialities and entertainment values and undermines journalism's relationship with the workings of democracy. Yet in spite of these protests, this lite news remains as entrenched and as popular as ever. In Tabloid Television, John Langer argues that television's other news must be recognised as equally important as hard news in the building of a genuinely comprehensive study of broadcast journalism. Using narrative analysis, theories of ideology, concepts from genre studies and detailed textual readings, other news is explored as a cultural discourse connected with story telling, gossip, social memory, the horror film, national identity and the cult of fame. Langer's study also examines the political role played by an allegedly non-political news and explores the links between this type of news and recent broadcasting trends towards reality television Tabloid Television Popular Journalism and the Other News provides an eclectic and intriguing look at one of the most maligned areas of television news By offering an extended and thoroughly grounded analysis of actual news stories John Langer locates the question of representational power as one of the central concerns of the media studies agenda and offers some interesting speculation about where television news may be heading Tabloid Secrets Neville Thurlbeck,2015-05-12 In nearly twenty years at the top of the News of the World Neville Thurlbeck chief reporter news editor and scoop hunter extraordinaire served up some of the most famous memorable and astonishing headlines in the paper's existence They lit up the world of tabloid journalism and featured names such as David Beckham Fred and Rose West Jeffrey Archer and Robin Cook among many others Along the way Thurlbeck was drawn into encounters with Cabinet ministers rent boys sports stars serial killers drug lords and on one occasion a devil worshipping police officer He worked with MI5 and the National Criminal Intelligence Service foiled a murder and gave Gordon Brown a tongue lashing to remember all in the name of journalism Now in Tabloid Secrets he reveals for the first time the truth about how he broke the stories that thrilled excited and shocked the nation and secured the paper up to fifteen million readers every week The result is a fascinating scandalous swashbuckling insight into some of the biggest and most sensational scoops by Fleet Street's most notorious reporter Editor & Publisher Newspaper Data Book ,1994 Newspaper and Bank Directory of the World Harlan Page Hubbard,1882 The Century Illustrated Monthly Magazine ,1888 Arthur's Lady's Home Magazine ,1880 Lippincott's Magazine ,1881 Scribner's Magazine ... ,1897 Fourth Estate ,1926 Annual Report - Toronto Public Library Toronto Public Library,1885 The Advertiser's ABC of Official Scales & Charges and Advertisement Press Directory ,1896 Harper's New Monthly Magazine ,1887 School and Community ,1975 Newspaper World ,1952 Encyclopædia Britannica Walter Yust,1946 Vanity Fair ,2008
