Surfer, 1999 Surfing Tropical Beats Sam Bleakley, J. S. Callahan, 2012 Sam Bleakley and the surf EXPLORE team take us on a roller coaster ride through Gabon India Vietnam Algeria China and Haiti drumming up a tropical beat Combining Deep Travel John Callahan's incredible photography and Sam's performance writing they capture the spirit of these turbulent coastscapes blood racing running on salt water fuel The wide belt around the Equator the tropics has become an alluring path for travel but a region often steeped in war and environmental disasters Sam and surf EXPLORE go off the regular route carving a niche collaborating with locals documenting the occasion poetically and with precision Where waves transform from green glass to white foam the surfboard is the frozen double of that transition a rainbow bridge that allows you to step in the blink of an eye from inertia to adrenaline fuelled ecstasy to the fear of the water wrestling hold down The paradoxical red hot and cool blue of surfing and the often icy logic of preparation for challenging travel form a matrix from which springs a distinctive kind of writing as performance By turns surf EXPLORE gather their wits at the crossroads where lovers part and souls get taken by the lost high way lured down the wrong route

Surfing Down South Sue-Lyn Aldrian-Moyle, 2014 For surfers and non surfers Surfing Down South offers a unique insight into Australia's surfing counterculture and a unique time in Australia's history With a Foreword by legendary surfer Taj Burrow the book covers the early days of surfing in Yallingup and Margaret River and records first hand stories of those who experienced it A research heavy book published by Margaret River Press and written by Sue Lyn Aldrian Moyle Chefs of the Margaret River Region the book has been in production for two years as stories and photos were collated from the baby boomer surfers who surfed in Yallingup and Margaret River in the 50s and 60s The book follows the often larrikin behaviour of young surfers who share riveting and humorous anecdotes of their antics and adventures fisticuffs at Caves House aerial acrobatics with local farmers draft dodging during the Vietnam War drug smuggling setting up shaping businesses in settler's cottages the organization of the first surfing competitions and building alternative style homes and businesses Their recollections of surfing in WA during their youth are revealed as trailblazing and controversial as the book steps back in time to the days before Landcruisers and when bear suits were worn as wet suits when surfers listened to Jazz and drove old Holdens and Volkswagens along dusty tracks and when farmers locked up their daughters when the surfers were in town Archival vintage photographs in the book capture pivotal classic moments of surfing's history Photographs by legendary surf photographers Ric Chan John Witzig and John Ogden sit alongside engaging narratives from pioneering surfers such as George Simpson Ian Cairns and Rob Conneeley This first surfing book from young publishers Margaret River Press has captured the era and location beautifully I m stoked to see that the huge range of antics and anecdotes compiled by Sue Lyn in this historic book about surfing in the Margaret River Region are now preserved for all to enjoy and to remind us of a very precious era Taj Burrow     The Pilgrimage Sean Doherty,2007

Surfing is an obsession and many a surfer has thrown away life as he once knew it for a single wave In The Pilgrimage some of the world s top surf writers pay tribute to 50 of the world s best waves the breaks which have become so much part of surfing folklore that they ve developed a life force of their own This book is sure to become a classic The text creates a great sense of place and there s practical information on getting to nearly every break the best time to go what to take where to stay and what to look out for The Pilgrimage is the perfect read for anyone who has ever caught or tried to catch a wave from grommets to geriatrics Destinations include Australia and New Zealand Indonesia and southern Asia the north and south Pacific Africa and the Indian Ocean Europe and Great Britain North and South America     THE COMPLETE BOOK OF SURFING PETER L.
